80 PLEAS OF GUILTY IN ELECTION FRAUD CASES

FOUR BATTLES NOW RAGE IN FRANCE AND ALSACE

DEMURRER FILED FOR ROBERTS AND OTHERS

Four Score of 114 Indicted Terre Haute Men Admit Participation in Alleged Conspiracy.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—Admitting that they had participated in the alleged conspiracy to corrupt the election of November 3, 1914, in Terre Haute, eighty men of 114 under arrest pleaded guilty before Judge A. B. Anderson in United States district court here today. Sentence was not passed.

Mayor Donn M. Roberts, of Terre Haute; Circuit Judge Eli H. Redman, Sheriff Dennis Shea, and others who were represented by Representative A. O. Stanley of Kentucky, filed demurers to the charges contained in the indictment, which was returned the day before last Christmas. The demurers will be argued January 20.

Edward Holler who until a few days ago was chief of police of Terre Haute, and John Nugent former night chief of police, were among those who pleaded guilty. With the exception of Holler and Nugent all of the city and county officials who were indicted filed demurers.

May Return Home.

After the 114 men had pleaded, Judge Anderson instructed that all those who had plead guilty could return to their homes and await the summons of United States District Attorney Frank C. Dailey. The same freedom was granted those who had pleaded not guilty and then court set January 20 as the date to hear arguments on the demurrers.

The Roberts Demurrer.

The demurrer, filed in behalf of Mayor Roberts, set forth (1) the court has no jurisdiction in the case; (2) the facts are not sufficient warrant to constitute a public offense; (3) facts are not sufficient to constitute a crime, misdemeanor; (4) fourth count indictment is duplicitious in that it attempts to state in a single count more than one separate and disinct offense; and (5) the indictment is vague.

With only one or two exceptions, each of the prisoners spoke plainly when called upon to plead. Daniel Alban, the second man called, stood and wetted his lips for several seconds and then only nodded his head affirmatively when the court asked if he were guilty. He was the first to plead guilty.

Alexander Aczelf, first called, pleaded not guilty.

Guessed He Was Guilty, Then.

Jesse Powell, attempted to give some details regarding his part in the alleged conspiracy. He said he was mixed up in the registrations but didn't know anything about the conspiracy.

"Did you register more than once?" asked Judge Anderson.

"Yes" admitted the prisoner. "I'll plead guilty to that but not to conspiracy."

After Judge Anderson had explained the meaning of the word conspiracy more fully, Powell said: "I guess I'm guilty then."

The defendants, all of whom had been released on bonds or personal recognizance were ushered into the court room and seated one at a time. The jury box had been removed and a further alterations were necessary to find room for all of the 114 prisoners said to have been the largest number ever arraigned at one time in a United States court.

Mayor Roberts was among the last to enter the court room. He took a seat besides his counsel, Rep. Stanley, and frequently consulted him. He also turned to lok at many of the defendants as they uttered their pleas of guilty. Judge Redman and his son had seats at the counsel table.

Sets a New Record.

Inasmuch as this is said to be the largest number of men arraigned at one time in a United States court and since the cases, if convictions are obtained will set a precedent giving the federal government jurisdiction over elections, the hearing today has attracted wide interest. Until the indictment in the Terre Haute case was returned Dec. 24 the record for indictments by a federal grand jury was said to have been held by the investigators who returned bills against the more than 50 dynamiters here in 1912.

According to local attorneys the Terre Haute investigation marks the first time the federal government has ever attempted to have jurisdiction over the election machinery. Frank Dailey, United States district attorney for Indiana, who personally worked up the case before the grand jury is working on the theory that since United States senator and a member of congress were involved in the election any efforts to manipulate the election illegally constituted fraud against the United States.

Many City Officials.

Included among the 114 prisoners arraigned are ten city and county officials, among whom being the mayor, city attorney, city comptroller, chief of police, members of the city board of [illegible] and a judge of the [illegible]

men with "occupation unknown." Mr. Dailey says he has confessions from several of the men and expects a number to plead guilty and throw themselves on the mercy of the court. Others were expected to attack the indictment by demurrer when called for arraignment United States authorities since last November have been investigating the election in Terre Haute. Without warning a number of United States marshals on Nov. 18 swept down on Terre Haute and arrested 18 persons, who were wanted chiefly as witnesses before the federal grand jury.

Examine 400 Witnesses.

The grand jury is said to have examined more than 400 witnesses from Terre Haute and on December 24 just before it adjourned for the Christmas holidays returned a single indictment on which the 114 person were taken into custody, many of them on Christmas night. Mayor Roberts and the majority of the county and city officials, however, were not called in by United States Marshal Mark Storen until the day after Christmas. With the exception of Mayor Roberts all of the more important prisoners obtained bond and were released without being brought to the Indianapolis jail. Roberts, who, Marshal Storen said, made little effort to raise bond of $10,000 while in Terre Haute with 21 others was placed in the jail here Saturday night December 26. Roberts was released in the afternoon of December 28 after spending two days behind the bars. In time all of the men brought to the Indianapolis jail were released on bond.

In Four Counts.

The indictment is in four counts covering more than 100 typewritten pages. The first count charges violation of section 19 of the criminal code, the subject matter of which is conspiracy to injure persons in the exercise of the civil rights. It is set forth that this section was violated in three ways as follows:

1. Qualified voters were prevented from voting for candidates for the United States senate and for the house of representatives.

2. Qualified persons were prevented from serving on election boards.

3. Persons who had committed no offense, were placed in jail and deprived of their liberty without due process of law.

The second count based on section 37, which was used in the prosecution of the dynamite conspiracy cases in 1912 charges further acts in connection with the alleged conspiracy. The general charge is that the defendants conspired to defraud the United States.

Mr. Dailey said Rep. Ralph Moss of the Fifth Indiana district was not in any way connected with the alleged conspiracy.

Count three charges violation of the postal laws in that it is alleged the conspiracy was furthered through the mails; the final count alleges that money was obtained through the mails for a fund to be used in a scheme to commit false registration.

The federal grand jury has not yet completed its work. After the holiday recess, it spent about a week investigating election conditions in Indianapolis and then took another recess. When it meets again it is understood that election conditions in Evansville and possibly some of the other cities in the state will be considered.

WILSON REFUSES TO MAKE ANY COMMENT

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Wilson said today he had no comment to make on the British reply to the American note, inasmuch as it was only a preliminary. He indicates he had not given the British communication full study as yet and plans to discuss it at length soon with Secretary Bryan.

In other quarters, however, where the communication has been gone over in detail by officers of the government, the view still prevails that while many concessions have been made, the British note leaves much still to be expected before American merchants can be apprised of what they can or cannot do with their cargoes.

Officials hope the second British note expected in a few days will lay down specific rules by which American exporters can be guided in the future.

EVANGELIST [illegible]ON DOES NOT ALWAYS REST ON THE DAY OF THE WEEK SET APART FOR RELAXATION.

That Dr. Milford H. Lyon does not always rest on the day set apart for recreation was indicated Monday when he was found dictating to Fred H. Rapp at the home of the evangelistic party, on Lake avenue. He was about as busy as he is when he is in active service before the public.

Neither does Loren Jones rest. He was hard at work transposing music at such times as he was not getting out of the way of Mrs. Jones, who was "ti dying up" the room a bit.

SUFFRAGE NOW BEFORE HOUSE

Debate on Votes for Women Holds Interest at Washington.

SPECIAL RULE IS ADOPTED, 209 TO 31

Women Throng the Galleries to Await Vote at End of Six Hours Debate.

Washington, Jan. 12.—After an hour and a half of debate the house today adopted, 209 to 31, a special rule for considering the proposed constitutional amendment for women suffrage and then setled down to six hours actual debate before voting on whether to submit the resolution to the states for ratification.

The overwhelming vote in favor of the rule was by no means indicative of the sentiment of the resolution itself. Many who voted for the rule in order to bring the question up for ayes and no vote announced their intention of voting against the resolution itself. Anti-suffragists claimed the suffragists would not muster the necessary two-thirds vote; the suffragists did not predict more than that the house would register a majority in favor of their proposition.

Heavy Artillery in Action.

The debate on the rule had been spirited, bringing support and opposition from all parties. The real debate which began at 1 o'clock with six hours to run, brought out the heavy artillery of both sides, and promiseda vote some time after 7 o'clock this evening. To the applause and cheers of supporters of both sides of the question, packed in opposite galleries the house plunged into a debate fully as spectacular as that which attended the vote on the prohibition amendment some time ago. Representative Webb, chairman of the judiciary committee, led off the debate in opposition to the resolution. Debate on the special rule had been concluded by the floor leaders of the republican and democratic sides, Representative Mann supporting the amendment and Representative Underwood opposing it.

The Mondell resolution would submit to the states for their approval an amendment to the constitution inserting a new article as follows: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by a state on account of sex. Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article."

PUTS FLOOD DAMAGE AT OVER $25,000,000

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—The Indiana state flood commission, which was appointed by Governor Ralston, April 20, 1914, has completed its work and submitted the findings and recommendations to the governor. The commission consists of one member from each congressional district.

The commission reported that the tangible losses from the flood of March 1913 were in excess of $25,000,000 and that the damages to county bridges and highways alone was over $3,000,000. "We find that agricultural lands," says the report, "are greatly damaged by the effects of floods. In nine counties along the east and west forks of white river Prof. Beebe, of Indiana university, reports a total damage of approximately one-half million dollars. In those counties nearly 8,000 acres of agricultural lands were denuded of soil and some 16,000 acres of river bottom covered with sand and silt. The estimate of the loss to the agricultural lands in this region approximates $250,000."

THINKS KARLSRUHE HAS BEEN SENT DOWN

Montreal, Jan. 12.—A description of a naval battle off Grenada, British West Indies, is given in a letter received here today from an eye witness, who asserts that in his opinion the German cruiser Karlsruhe took part and was sunk.

The letter was made public by the Montreal Gazette and was received by a member of the Gazette staff from one of his friends at Grenada.

The letter was dated Grenada, Dec. 3, and the writer asserts that after the battle a life buoy came ashore marked "S. M. S. Karlsruhe," together with wreckage and barrels and food stuffs. He further writes that fishermen had brought the news that they had met dead bodies floating in the vicinity of the battle, numbers of candles marked "Kaiser light," boots with feet in them, helmets and other wreckage.

PROMISE REFORM TO SPEED UP JUSTICE

Washington, Jan. 12.—Non-partisan judicial reform to speed up justice and reduce the cost of procedure is promised by Senators before congress adjourns. The house has already agreed to the reform measures, and they have been favorably reported to the senate by the judiciary committee. Since President Wilson's speech at Indianapolis referring to judicial procedure in the United States as being behind every other civilized country democratic and state believe the bills will pass the senate without debate. WOULD REPEAL LAW OF 1895

Under Which Members and Officers of Legislature Were Indicted.

SENATE TACKS IT TO APPROPRIATIONS

Total of 24 Bills Offered in Two Houses at Today's Session.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—The repeal of the law of 1895, under which thirteen members and officers of the 1913 session of the Indiana general assembly were indicted recently by the Marion county grand jury, is provided for in the amendments passed in the senate today to the house bill appropriating $115,000 to meet expenses of this session of the legislature.

The senate also favors amending the house bill to provide for the employment committees issuing certificates for payment of salaries and other expenses, while the house bill provides these duties evolve upon the presiding officer. The measure as amended carried by a vote of 42 to 6, republican members being the opponents and will be introduced in the house tomorrow.

Twenty-four Bills.

Twenty-four bills were introduced in the two houses today, including seventeen in the senate and seven in the house. Eugenic marriages will become the order in Indiana if a bill of Senator Neal, of Boone county, is passed. Other important measures concerned the repeal of the present registration law, the abolishment of the public drinking cup in public buildings and at places where public gatherings are held, requiring private funerals of all persons who die of contagious diseases and to practically quarantine hogs that have cholera.

By parliamentary procedure the resolution introduced last week on woman suffrage and deferred for consideration until this afternoon, was continued. The discussion of this resolution marked the only fight in the house. Representative Scott, of Indianapolis, author of it, declaring that the house would be acting discourteously to many women who he understood planned to attend this afternoon.

Must Face Suffrage Question.

Representative Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes, brought on the discussion by moving that, as the house was about to adjourn and as it had the suffrage question up as an order of business for this afternoon, that its consideration be advanced. Representative Scott jumped to his feet and voiced vigorous protest, which resulted in Mr. Niblack withdrawing his motion. A motion to adjourn was then started and a chorus of [illegible] greeted the question of Speaker [illegible]

After a day of rest Dr. Milford H. Lyon is again ready to resume his fight against sin in Fort Wayne. While the evangelist calls Monday his rest day, he was exceedingly busy answering letters and planning for the campaign to be waged here during the coming weeks.

Members of the Associated Christian Workers are planning for a big time Tuesday night and will march to the tabernacle in a body headed by a drum corps. There will be a parade through the principal downtown streets. Badges for eight hundred have been printed. Those who will participate in the parade will meet at the Westminster church at 6:30 o'clock. The parade will start at 7 o'clock, the path to the tabernacle being lighted with red lights.

Dr. Lyon will speak Tuesday evening on "Rolling Away the Stone." The song service under the direction of Loren G. Jones will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Something About the Evangelist.

Much Interest Aroused.

There is naturally much interest in the man capable of arousing the religious interest that Dr. Lyon has in Fort Wayne. He was born near Waukon, Allamakee county, Iowa, on Feb. 10, 1868, the youngest of thirteen children. His boyhood days were spent on a farm, walking two miles to attend the village school.

Studied Law.

He completed the high school course at the age of 13 and soon after moved with his parents to Humboldt, in the northwestern part of Iowa, where he spent a year in a lawyer's office, preparing a set of county abstract books. His father having engaged in the hardware business, young Lyon spent more than four years clerking in the store; working at the bench in the tin shop, and during the last two years of this time had special charge of the collection of the accounts and the purchase of goods. During these years, while he was out of school, young Milford had an ambition to return to his studies, but the way did not open up until the autumn of 1887, when, his father having sold the store, he started to Iowa City and entered the academy. Doing two years' work in one, he completed the academic course the following June, and the next fall entered the state univers-

WAR'S GRIP HOLDS FAST

Desperate Fighting Fails to Change Alignment of Mighty Foes.

EACH IS RUSHING IN NEW THOUSANDS

Present Battles Preliminary to Vaster Operations in the Spring.

London, Jan. 12.—The great armies battling in the eastern and western arenas of the war by artillery exchanges, sapping operations and trench attacks, continue to be aligned today much as they were on the first of January. Everywhere the disposition seems to be to await the coming of spring when, with fresh armies thrown into the field events promise to move more quickly.

Great Britain is now sending thousands of men to France every week, and according to today's report from Berlin, Germany, aware of this, is making great military preparations for a counter movement. All the reserves are being called to the colors, it is declared here, and the further statement is made that the German generals are gathering up the reins to assume active direction of all the campaigns, that is to say the Austro-Hungarian fight against Servia and Russia and the Turkish campaign against Russia and Great Britain.

Germany still claims that she is making slow progress toward Warsaw. There have been published in London, however, reports that these operations are merely movements to shield a German retreat to the Silesian frontier. British military observers do not credit this idea, believing that Gen. von Hindenburg has further offensive strength, but at the same time they draw attention to the fact that the Russians must feel confident of Warsaw's safety else they would not continue to hurl so many troops at Hungary through Bukowina.

In the western arena the points of greatest interest are in the center near Soissons and on the French right in Alsace. Here the fighting continues while the rest of the line is virtually inactive.

BERLIN REPORTS VICTORIES.

Say French Attacks Wither Away Before German Fire.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—(By Wireless to London.)—The German official statement issued in Berlin today says:

"In the western theater insignificant engagements are taking place south of the canal of La Bassee, but so far without result.

"French troops last night made an attack on our positions to the south of Cernay, but they were repulsed with heavy losses. Early this morning the battle was resumed in this district.

"A French attack which started yesterday afternoon in the region of Perthes withered away before our fire, the enemy suffering very heavy losses.

"In the Argonne forest a French vantage point was taken on the Roman high

Today's War News Given in Summary.

Four distinct battles which have developed in France and Alsace are being carried on vigorously, but without marked advantage for either side. Of greatest immediate consequence is the fighting near Perthes, which involves possession of important railroad and probably a considerable section of the fortified battle line. In this district the French attempted further attacks, but were beaten back with heavy losses, the German official statement today asserts, near Soissons, near the Aisne the French statement says German attempts to capture [illegible] tions were repulsed and [illegible] were seised by the allies.

KISSES BOUND GUARD BEFORE HE ESCAPES

Virginia Police on Watch for Four Convicts in Dash for Liberty.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 12.—Police of several Virginia cities today are on the watch for four convicts who escaped from the Virginia state penitentiary here late last night after overpowering and binding a prison guard, an armed watchman and a shop foreman. The escaped men are Al Burton and Siler Atkins, serving long sentences for second degree murder, and H. L. Hamilton and E. B. Hanley, serving nine and eight years, respectively, for forgery and robbery.

Information gathered by prison officials led them to believe the men are making their way to Newport News in an effort to board a cattle ship for Europe.

The escape was discovered by Wm. L. Bailey, a trusty, whose duties required his presence in the vicinity of the overall factory, where the four men were working. Failure of the night watchman to appear at the usual time prompted Bailey to make an investigation which disclosed the three helpless prison employes, laying side by side on the floor of the factory workshop.

According to the story told by the guard, the four men caught him unawares and overpowered and bound him. Appropriating his two revolvers, they waited for the night watchman to make his rounds. A pistol pointed at the latter's heart caused a prompt surrender. He was placed beside the guard. The capture of the unarmed shop foreman, who returned to the shop at this moment, was effected with ease, and the three helpless men then were forced to watch the prisoners prepare to depart.

The prison garments quickly gave way to shirts and overalls. A rope was made of the cloth which the convicts had been working. This was fastened to an iron stanchion and dropped through a window to the ground, fifty feet below. Then after making the three captives comfortable by placing improvised pillows under their heads the convicts rifled their pockets and requisitioned their hats.

Hamilton, known as "the boy forger," stooped and kissed the guard. "Bye, bye, old sport, good luck," he said.

The four then slipped through the window and made their way hand over hand to the ground.

WAS NOT THINKING OF HIS CANDIDACY

President Explains Remark in Indianapolis Address.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Wilson declared today that he was not thinking of announcing his candidacy for 1916 when he made the statement in his Indianapolis speech recently that the people of the United States might have a chance to judge of his acts.

His utterance was interpreted by the audience and by others at the time as a hint that he might be a candidate for renomination. The president explained to callers today that what he had in mind was that future generations would pass upon his acts as president.

The president refused today absolutely to discuss the question of being a candidate. Efforts were made to get an expression of opinion from him on the one term plank of the Baltimore platform, but Mr. Wilson shook his head and refused to answer questions. He said that he could not talk about himself.

ALLIANCE FAVORS THE VOLLMER BILL

A resolution to be forwarded to Congressman Cyrus Cline asking him to use his influence in support of the Vollmer bill, prohibiting the export from the United States of arms, ammunition and other implements of warfare to belligerent countries in times of war, was passed Monday evening at the regular quarterly meeting of the Fort Wayne German alliance. Congressman Cline is a member of the committee on foreign relations.

Individual letters have been sent to Mr. Cline and Senators Kern and Shively.

The alliance voted to support the two lectures to be given next week by Prof. Kuehnemann, of the Breslau university at the St. Paul's auditorium. Prof. Kuehnemann, who is one of the German exchange professors, is now making a tour of the United States. On Thursday evening, January 21, he will deliver a lecture in German and on the following evening will speak in English on the topic, "German Militarism." The proceeds will go to the German Red Cross.

Delegates to the alliance were urged to boost the German play, "Lieb Vaterland" to be given at the Majestic theater on February 3, by the Irving Place Theater company, of New York.

Paul Richter was elected treasurer of the alliance to fill the vacancy caused as the result of the death of the late Gustave Schubert.

STEAMER WAS AFIRE IN TERRIFIC GALE

New York, Jan. 12.—The Anchor line steamer Perugia, in today from Mediterranean ports, had a narrow escape from serious injury by fire when west of the Azores. Smoke was discovered among bales of hemp in number 3 hold and when the hatches were opened a black cloud rolled up from the smoldering cargo. A gale was blowing at the time. The crew fought the fire by hauling out as much of the hemp as possible and flooding the hold. For a time the fire seemed to be spreading and the captain turned the ship back on its course, seeking to reach the Azores. A wireless message was sent reporting the fire. After a fight of four hours, however, the blaze was brought under control. The captain again changed the direction of the ship and proceeded on his way west.

MRS. ROGERS IS TOLD OF HOMICIDE CHARGE

New York, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Ida Sniffen Rogers, who poisoned her two babies, was told today in the hospital, where she is recovering from a dose of poison that she administered to herself, that District Attorney Martin, of the Bronx, had preferred a charge of homicide against her and had asked the grand jury to indict her.

The news was broken by her lawyer, Abraham Levi, who had planned to confer with her, but Mrs. Rogers was so overcome that Mr. Levi was obliged to leave her in the care of nurses. While she had feared that she might have to face such a charge, she had been led to believe, it was said, that she would escape with a charge of attempted suicide. The grand jury heard more witnesses in the case today.

GERMANY REPUDIATES FRENCH ACCUSATIONS

Amsterdam, Jan. 12.—There has been received here from Berlin an official dispatch which repudiates all the accusations against the troops of Germany made in the report of a French committee which investigated certain alleged atrocities. This report, given out to the public January 7, by the French cabinet charged the Germans with many outrages. The dispatch from Berlin says:

"This French statement is an unbroken series of slanders with no other intention than to create hatred against the German people."

Continuing, it complains that the French report is lacking in detail and it declares that German military commanders always have maintained discipline among their troops and observed all the rules of warfare. In conclusion this dispatch promises that specific charges will be investigated and the results made public.

URGES CHANGE IN LICENSING SYSTEM

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 12.—Decentralization of the taxing and saloon licensing systems and placing the issuance of saloon licenses in the hands of county officials already elected, instead of appointing boards, was recommended by Governor Willis in his first message to the general assembly today. He suggested a number of methods of effecting economy. He recommended that the maximum death award under workmen's compensation be increased, that a system of registering and voting by mail be established and that the anti-student voting law be repealed.

ROGERS

DISQUIET IN BALKANS SPREADS RAPIDLY

London, Jan. 12.—In view of the predicted entrance into the war of Roumania and perhaps Italy, unusual interest attaches to dispatches indicating that disquiet in the Balkins is spreading. Italy may be called upon soon to resort to force of arms in Albania. The insurgents are said to be bringing up guns to direct against Durazzo, the port recently occupied by Italian forces.

Servia's aspirations have expanded since her victory over the Austrian army and according to a Rome dispatch she now insists that, in the event of victory for the allies, she must receive Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia. Italy has sent troops to Italian islands in the Aegean archipelago, which she is fortifying. Roumania is to begin the mobilization of her army late this month.

Although the Austro-German forces in Poland apparently have given up for the time a general offensive movement, fighting of a local character continues.

Vienna reports that an attempt of the Russians to cross the lower Nida, in southern Poland, was repulsed. The attack apparently means that the Russians have determined on another move on Cracow, the Galician stronghold.

Army headquarters at Petrograd states that German attacks on the Russian positions along the Vistula were beaten back. A minor victory over the Turkish forces in the Caucasus also is announced.

LYON READY FOR BIG WEEK

ity. During the succeeding four years he earned his entire expenses by teaching mathematics in the academy and working as traveling salesman during the summer season, selling goods for an Iowa City factory.

Did Not Waste Time.

It is evident that he did not waste much time in those years, for he ranked first in scholarship in his class of fifty for the entire course. And he also spent much time in extra literary work, engaging in the university oratorical contest, where he won first place, and then in the state oratorical contest he won first honors over the prize contestants from fourteen other colleges. And then, in the interstate contest at Lincoln, Neb., he received the highest marks ever given, being graded first by three judges, and second by a fourth judge. This was the same oratorical association in which Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and ex-Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, won highest honors a few years earlier.

Held in High Esteem.

It is evident that Dr. Lyon held the esteem and confidence of his college mates for during his senior year he was given the three highest university honors, the presidency of the leading literary society, the presidency of the Republican club and was also elected president of the university Y. M. C. A.

Before his graduation he was elected as president of Ellsworth college, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, and entered upon his duties immediately upon finishing his university course. Here he remained for two years, directing the financial and executive management of the school, besides teaching Latin and literature.

Starts as Unitarian.

Mr. Lyon had entered the university as a Unitarian, although reared in a Christian home, he had drifted into what he termed liberal thought, and for the first two years in college [illegible]

ing the remainder of his college course he was active along religious lines, being chosen by the state Y. M. C. A. as a member of the state deputation, and by the international Y. M. C. A. to deliver the address at their national convention in Kansas City for the colleges of America.

Mr. Lyon had entered college with the intention of studying for the law and going into politics, and having turned from this to teaching he felt more and more impressed with the needs and importance of the gospel ministry. At the close of his second year as college president he resigned his position to accept a call to the pastorate of the First Congregational church of Harvey, Ill. After a year and a half here he accepted the pastorate of the Bethel church at Windsor Park, Chicago. During this pastorate the church membership was nearly doubled and a new building was erected.

Feeling the great need of evangelistic work all over the land Dr. Lyon decided to resign from his pastorate and enter what seemed to him a broader field of Christian endeavor. It would naturally seem a very perilous venture to resign from a successful pulpit and a good salary to start out, not knowing where, without any assurance of financial support for himself and family. Yet this is what Mr. Lyon did and it cannot help but make him smile when people say he entered evangelism for the money there was in it. Naturally he had to start in a small way, at first in single church meetings. But from that beginning his work has constantly grown. During the past fifteen years he has spoken more than seven thousand times in twenty-four states and has never missed a service on account of ill health. As a result of his work there have been at least a hundred thousand conversions.

Having been a pastor Dr. Lyon naturally looks at evangelism from the standpoint of the men who are to remain on the field after the evangelist has left.

Many Invitations Received.

During the past year he has received more than twenty invitations from [illegible] Jesus, has gone into the seventh edition. The later book, For the Life That Now Is, has reached the third edition. His ministry has centered especially about the supreme truth of the Kingship of Christ. It was at his suggestion that the publishers of the song book used in the meetings called the new book by the name which is the heart of Dr. Lyon's ministry, "Make Christ King." For fifteen years Dr. Lyon lived at Wheaton, Ill., but has recently built a home, "Faerholm," at Winona Lake, Ind.

In the autumn, after his graduation from the university, he married a college friend, Miss Effie Forest, of Miles, Iowa. They have five children, Merle Paul, the oldest, is a senior at Oberlin college. Helen is a member of the sophomore class at Oberlin. Arthur Eugene is a junior at Winona academy. The two younger children, Margaret, thirteen years old, and Ruth, seven years, are in the Winona public schools.

LOGANSPORT LADY WENT TO DENVER

Mrs. Etta Julian, of 2301 High Street, Took a Trip to Colorado for Her Asthma.

Mrs. Etta Julian, a well known resident of Logansport, Indiana, took a trip to points in Colorado in an endeavor to get relief from her asthma, which had gotten so bad that she could hardly live. She had been unable to lie in bed for six months and suffered untold agony. Her trip and expenses was of no avail for she came back in as bad condition as she was when she left for the west.

When the Fort Wayne Inter-State Medical Institute was opened at 205 West Berry street, she went to the physician in charge and he took her case for treatment. Mrs. Julian writes the following letter for publication:

Logansport, Ind., Dec. 15, 1914.

Inter-State Doctors:

As you wanted me to write you a letter telling you about myself I will do so. I have suffered with the asthma 25 years. I called on your specialist just three weeks ago, he gave me a thorough scientific examination and told me he could give me relief.

I have been six months at a time so I could not lie in bed. I would cough and spit enormous quantities of phlegm and there would be times I would choke and turn blue in the face and what little breath I did get would nearly smother me.

I have taken all kinds of medicine that I could hear of and doctored with many doctors with no results. The medicine would make me sick and the doctor would give me morphine.

I went to Denver and Grand Junction, Colorado, but on return was as bad or worse than before. I have had the asthma the whole year through for the last 25 years.

I came three weeks ago and within a week began to notice improvement and now I am the best I have been for years. Any one wishing to know about my case can call on me at my home, 2301 High street, and I will gladly tell them what you have done for me.

MRS. ETTA JULIAN.

The above letter is only one of the many which are received daily by the Inter-State Doctors from grateful patients who feel that they owe their lives and happiness to the skill and attention of these master medical specialists.

The Inter-State Doctors treat all curable cases of chronic diseases of the nerves, blood, skin, heart, liver, stomach and kidneys, including rheumatism, neuralgia, constipation, goitre, epilepsy, gall stones, catarrh, dyspepsia, indigestion, dropsy, weak back, eczema, scrofula, diseases of men and diseases of women.

SHE HAS "DEMURE LITTLE WAY," BUT SPIRIT OF YANKEE INDEPENDENCE.

Will London have to elect another "successor to Edna May"? It probably will, for Ferne Rogers, American musical comedy star, recently crowned "Edna May the second," has lost cast with the Britishers and incidentally lost her job at the Drury Lane theater because she said, right out loud where everyone could hear her, "I like the Germans. I hope they will win, and I'm sure they will win."

Miss Rogers' beauty has made her famous on two continents, but it was "the demure little way she had" that captivated London.

PIMPLES SPREAD ALL OVER HEAD

2508 N. Hamilton Ave., Chicago, Ill.—"My scalp trouble began on the lower part of my head with severe itching and burning, forming into lumps or pimples which spread all over my head. These would itch something terrible, getting red and sore and after some time they got hard. My trouble always seemed to be worse. Nights when I would take down my hair and comb it the scales were so thick that I would have nothing but scales in my comb.

"I had had the trouble six months when I heard about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. The itching had kept me awake at night but when I used the sample I had better rest. I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and bar of Cuticura Soap and used them every night and morning for four weeks. My head was all healed and I would never wash my head now with anything else but Cuticura Soap." (Signed) Miss Helen Beyer, July 30, 1914.

ACTRESS BRIDE POSTPONES HONEYMOON TO PLAY ROLE IN "POLYGAMY."

Chrystal Herne is a bride and a most unhappy one, but "Polygamy," not plain matrimony, is the cause of her discontent.

When Miss Herne became the bride of Henry Pollard, New York newspaperman, she expected to take a six months' honeymoon vacation. But before her wedding gifts were unpacked she was called upon to play an important role in the new drama, "Polygamy." The play couldn't be postponed, so the honeymoon was set back a season, much to the displeasure of the bride.

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "[illegible] Pinex," and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toledo, Ohio.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Psalms 12:1-8.

1 Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour; with flattering lips, and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things;

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own; who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the Lord are pure words, as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O Lord, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever;

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

On the First Roll Call.

The hope has been expressed that the present Indiana legislature would not burden the state statute books with a mass of new and unnecessary laws, but that, rather, it would devote its time to enacting only actually needed legislation and then quit; that quality and not quantity would be made the measure of its public service. It is much too early, of course, to either begin counting chickens or making predictions, but the start is auspicious. On the first roll call of the session Monday afternoon the house and senate each received eight bills—the smallest number of measures offered on the first roll call in many years. The more important of these proposals were:

A measure to repeal the registration law.

A resolution holding in contempt any person who attempts to lobby for a measure on the floor of the house when the house is in session.

A bill requiring circuit court judges to appoint expert accountants to go over the books of each county official at the expiration of the term of office.

A measure to provide for financial assistance in the burial of war veterans.

A bill to abolish capital punishment in Indiana and to substitute life imprisonment for the electric chair.

The repeal of the registration law is fathered by Representative Fred L. Feick, of Garrett, who also offered the resolution against lobbying on the floor of the house. Senator Otis L. Ballou, of Lagrange, is sponsor for the bill providing county financial aid for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines and their widows, and the measure was the first one to be introduced in the asembly at the present session. Behind the bill to do away with the electric chair in this state is Senator C. A. McCormick, of North Judson, who was prominent during the recent meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association in Fort Wayne.

Encouraging as is the small number of bills presented as the session opens, it of course does not follow that the ratio will be maintained or that the present legislature will be able to escape about the usual complement of freak measures that we have come to expect and to regard as a perfectly normal condition of legislative sessions. Legislatures are always legislatures, and they are importuned by about the same number of persons with freak bills and impossible suggestions session after session. Often the member is forced to sheer self-defense to burden the calendar with measures with which he is not in sympathy because he cannot otherwise escape the constituent back home, and the constituent back home should not be allowed to escape responsibility for this condition. Indiana does not need so many pounds of addition to its statute books so much as it needs a smaller number of really important measures and an early adjournment of the legislature.

The December report of the Associated Charities shows that demands for relief in Fort Wayne were greater than in any previous month during the past fifteen years, but it shows also that there was a splendid response to appeals for assistance from deserving sources. Both organizations and individuals in Fort Wayne have been finely generous and kindly in aiding the unfortunate, and while there has doubtless been privation and suffering that has not been reached, the sum total of accomplished good in this direction is by no means a small one. It is the sort of service, too, that blesses him who gives as well as him who receives.

The very able and very estimable Frank B. Willis has just been inaugurated as governor of Ohio, and the state returns to republican rule after nine years. Without going to the length of squarely saying as much we gather from manifestations of republican rejoicing the fact that our neighbors on the east have a strong conviction that the mellenium is just around the bend and coming fast.

Cole Blease, who will in a few days retire as governor of South Carolina, has during his term of office freed a total of 3,600 convicts from the state penal institutions and entirely wiped out the state militia. Apparently Mr. Blease is not particular regarding his place on the imperishable roll of fame, but he is plainly determined [illegible]

Lyon's Publicity Man is a Hustler

REV. RAY UPSON.

The smallest individual in the Lyon party, and yet he is big in usefulness and efficiency. This in a single sentence describes Ray G. Upson, Rev. Ray G. Upson it used to be for Mr. Upton is an ordained minister in the United Brethren church. Mr. Upson is the publicity man of the Dr. Lyon party and he knows the publicity game, at least the religious publicity game, from start to finish.

Upson took along the scribe after he got to town last week, made the rounds of the newspapers and the printing establishments, and soon had the wheels of the advertising end of the Lyon machine running as smoothly and easily as if he had lived in Fort Wayne all his life. And the beauty of all his work is that it is done so quietly and apparently with such little effort on Upson's part, that after he is through with any given job, you wonder how it all happened.

Mr. Upson not alone advertises the meeting but he assists in the shop and factory work. His voice is heard as a member of the quartet, and in solo work in the noonday meetings.

Upson knows the evangelistic game, and has been with some of the leading companies of the country. When "Pit" as he is familiarly called by some of the male members of the party is away, acting as advance representative, Mr. Upson takes his place as the business manager of the party. The local newspaper men all say "Upson's all right."

NEW OFFICERS NAMED BY SHRINE PATROL

J. M. Kuhns was elected president of the Mizpah temple patrol, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at the regular meeting at the home, 227 West Main street, Monday evening. The other officers are: Dr. J. W. Autenreith, vice president; Amos Richey, secretary, and Frank Rouzer, treasurer.

Edgar H. Kilbourne was named as captain of the patrol with the following aides: Harry Jones, first lieutenant; Robert B. Garmire, second lieutenant; Samuel Newell, first sergeant; Robert Klaehn, second sergeant.

Announcement was made by Byron H. Somers, illustrious potentate, that a special ladies' night would be held at the temple on January 29. There will be a special entertainment, a patrol drill, dancing, cards and refreshments.

Great preparation are being made for the ceremonial to be held the latter part of February. Mr. Somers has promised "something extra," but what that "something extra" will be is yet a secret.

WHERE NEIGHBORS ARE TO BE FOUND.

(Kansas City Star.)

Out in the country near Blue Springs, in Jackson county, recently, a farmer lost his house by fire. The sympathetic village council voted $50, "just to help him through," as they say in the country.

The news report of the incident does not tell, but it is practically certain that the neighbors also took the members of the family of that farmer and entertained them in the homes until they could get "on their feet again," and find a new home. And even then, if the new home is anywhere in that neighborhood, the neighbor women will gather and help the farmer's wife get the new place 'straightened up."

It is the fine neighborly spirit of helpfulness that makes the country such a wholesome place for living.

Come misfortune, come sickness, come death—there is never lacking in the country places the spirit to "bear ye one another's burdens."

Recently in the big city—not far from Kansas City, either—the fire department was called to a home. When the firemen left, there remained the charred shell of a house and a few pieces of furniture that had been carried out by the family. A few curious persons stood in the street to watch the firemen. Only the neighbors of the very next door showed actual sympathy. The insurance adjuster and the newspaper reporter were the most inquisitive persons present as to the loss on the property; the financial condition of the unfortunate or the future plans of the sufferers.

"Have you any near neighbors?" a country woman was asked recently.

"Oh, yes," was the reply. "Several of them. The nearest ones live only a mile away."

A mile in the country, when it comes to the display of the kindly, helpful sentiment that makes life worth living, covers no such vast distance as a block in the city, where strangers dwell to themselves in seclusion.

In the city every sentiment of this neighborly spirit is restrained for fear it will be regarded as "meddling in the affairs of strangers." Out in the country, heaven be praised, there is no such fear of "meddling," and hardly such a word as "stranger," as it relates to anyone living within a radius of several miles around.

MORE CALLS THAN IN PAST FIFTEEN YEARS

Heavy Demands Made on Associated Charities During December.

During the month of December, the applications at the Associated Charities greatly exceeded those of any corresponding month for a period of at least fifteen years last past, the total number having been 130, of which 50 had never before applied there for aid. The applications represented a total of 213 adults and 286 children; of these 79 were resident families having children, 13 resident families without children, 12 men and 9 women residents; the non-residents were 18 men, 3 women and one family.

Investigations were made in 70 cases; 14 women were given tickets to the work room, and 11 worked. Assistance were rendered in 109 cases, 21 having been found not in need.

Co-operating in relief were the Fort Wayne Relief union, the Visiting Nurse league, Township trustees, the Elks, Lakeside Aid society, Willing Workers Aid society, te Associated Christian workers, Fidelity and Opportunity Circles of King's Daughters, churches, relatives, Epworth league of First M. E. church and private persons.

One case each were referred to the Board of Children's Guardians and charities organization in another city, and three to trustees. Investigations were made and advice given in 4 cases, asked by private persons. Temporary employment was secured once and permanent employment for two persons. Calls made by general secretary, 133; 'phone calls at office, 310; personal calls at office 228. Total value of assistance rendered exclusive of personal services 553.88 this does not include the value of Christmas dinners, supplies and cheer, given to 59 families, whose names were furnished to lodges, churches, Sunday School classes and private persons.

Much of the work of relief was made possible through cash donations received from the employes of the Wayne Knitting mills, the Isaac Knapp Dental Coterie and private persons; several of these contributions came anonymously. The action of the donors was greatly appreciated.

During the latter part of the month, an incident occurred, which showed the willingness and readiness of the people to assist when having knowledge of cases in real need. A woman with four small children deserted by her husband, having no means whatever, not even anything with which to ersure necessary food, was left dependent. It was learned she had a sister in the far west, who might make a home for her and her children. The Epworth League of the First M. E. church voluntarily assumed to provide food and room until this sister could be communicated with. In the course of time, word was received that the sister would gladly receive the woman in her own home if she were sent there. During a period of two weeks, the family was completely fitted out with clothing and other necessaries for the trip. The experiences connected with this case before she finally reached her home in the west, considerably exceeded $100.00. In addition to the relief already assumed by the Epworth league, it also provided one half the cash fare amounting to $30.00; others beside our own organization who assisted in this special case were the Fidelity and Opportunity Circles of the King's Daughters, the Relief union, the trustees of Wayne township, Patterson-Fletcher Co., C. J. Welker, and a number of private individuals.

How to Cure a Lagrippe Cough.

"Coughs that hang on" demand treatment. Stop and think! Reason and common sense tell you that it is folly to "grin and bear it." Those racking lagrippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pains in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar than to any other treatment. Forty years' record of successes proves this. For coughs, colds, croup and other distressing ailments of throat, chest, lungs, larynx and bronchial tubes, you can find nothing that will compare with this reliable remedy. Dreier Drug Co.—Adv.

Ralph Yarnelle, to a game of auction and to meet Mrs. Yarnelle who is here from Easton, Pa., for a visit. There were many lovely roses of different colors in the rooms and the luncheon at the close of the card game was another delight. At the home of Mrs. W. A. Nichols this afternoon Mrs. S. E. Muholland assisted in entertaining a very small company of neighbors to meet Mrs. Yarnelle again. Mrs. Fred B. Shoaff is to be another hostess for the same visitor on Wednesday.

Woman's League Meeting.

The exhibit of arts and crafts work at the public library on Saturday afternoon was a large and beautiful one and many examples of basketry, needlework and china were shown besides hammered things, work in leather, tatting, crocheting and so on, which were a credit to the city. This display only lasted the one afternoon and that fact was a disappointment to the visitors at the meeting which was under the auspices of the domestic science department of the Woman's league and to many who could not be present. Mrs. Guldlin, chairman, had arranged a program which in itself was enough to take up the afternoon and as it was an especially practical and interesting one, there was little time left to look over the exhibit. Such an exhibit might well be shown oftener, instead of once a year, and it could be kept open for a week and therefore be an incentive and an education in the very lines of endeavor this particular department of the Woman's league is aiming to promote. The idea is one of the best the league has brought to the front. Mrs. Guldlin was assisted in the excellent program by Mrs. Edson, Mrs. Mabel Bradley, Miss Katherine Brown and Mrs. Lee Ninde.

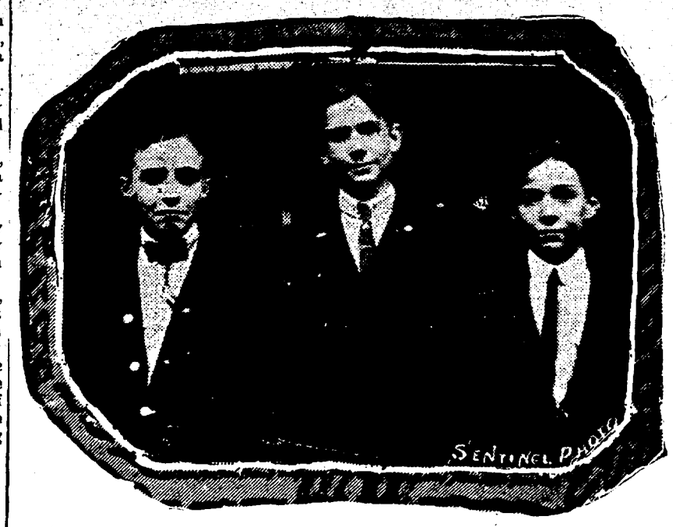
Mrs. Gerke was presented with many gifts appropriate for her years and one of special beauty was a big basket of eighty pink roses graced the center of the dinner table. The children of Mrs. Gerke are: Henry Gerke, of Portland, Ore., Mrs Christ Koester, Mrs. Adolph Burg, Fred Gerke, Mrs. Emil Burg, Mrs. Bartels and Miss Clara Gerke. There are thirty grandchildren and six great grandchildren in the family. A part of the time Mrs. Gerke lives on the Gerke farm in St. Joe township. She was born in Hanover, Germany. Smart club, and Mrs. Smith, of the Nebraska club, were appointed to make arrangements for entertainment. THREE BOYS TO SING AT TABERNACLE MEETING.



As a special musical number at the tabernacle Tuesday night of next week three boys will sing "Tell Mother I'll be There."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Anna Pavlowa Tonight.

Mlle. Anna Pavlowa, who, with her big organization of Russian choregraphic artists and her own symphony orchestra, will be the season's artistic feature here tonight, has received more royal favors from the crowned heads of Europe than perhaps any other living artist. She has been decorated six different times by the czar of Russia and is also the possessor of a large estate worthy a king's ransom through royal largess. Just prior to the outbreak of the European hostilities Pavlowa appeared in Berlin at the request of Kaiser Wilhelm. Following her performance Pavlowa was summoned to the royal box. It was current history at the time that when Pavlowa stained the kaiser's glove with the rouge from her lips she was frightened, thinking that the emperor had been hurt. But the dancer's fears were quickly laughed away by the royal party. The day following Pavlowa received from the kaiser a handsome jeweled handbag.

Concerning "Potash and Perlmutter."

"There is nothing mean about Abe, nothing cringing about Mawruss. This is the good quality of the play from the Jewish point of view, and there is no reason to be ashamed in any way of this presentation of the business and home character of these very human personalities. During its long run in New York city "Potash and Perlmutter" was visited by countless societies, both Jewish and gentiles, and representing every section of the United States. Its appeal is universal and in sending it to the Majestic on Friday evening Manager Woods believes that he is offering one of the highest, cleanest entertainments ever given on the American stage.

AT THE TEMPLE.

A fun feast is the tempting repast being served at the Temple this week in Henry P. Dixon's Revue of 1915. Garnished with a plethora of pretty girls and plentifully spiced with rich humor, fresh bright and snappy gags and some regular music the Revue this season justly earns the royal reception being accorded it by Fort Wayne's critical burlesque fans. Harry LeVan, the diminutive comedian with the expressive mobile features is the prime occasion for most of the big laughs of the show, but Sam Drane is given some excellent comedy lines. The feminine roles are in exceptional clever hands, with Claire Devine, the lovely prima donna, Helen (Patsy) Delaney, the dandy dancer, Florence Brooks and a host of other equally clever young woman handling the principal burdens. The chorus is exceptionally snappy.

AT THE EMPRESS.

The bill that is now on view at the Empress is one of those shows that contain more than the customary percentage of laughter anr entertainment. The bill opens with the appearance of Charles and Anna Glocker, the exceptional jugglers who perform some unusual stunts with pails and boilers of water. Wallace Galvin comes next with a magical act which provokes merriment and is very entertaining. He is the man who made the egg trick famous and this egg trick of his is sure a laughable act. "When Caesar Sees Her" is a travesty that is a hummer. It is another big laugh act and it is followed by another big laugh maker in "Suffocated With Delightfulness" which is presented by Fiddler and Shelton, two colored comedians. The closing act is the unusual posing number presented by the Four Milos, the original radium platinum posers.

THE BEAUTIFUL "DRAW STEP" IN THE NEW "FOX TROT."

AT THE COLONIAL

"THE SQUARE TRIANGLE."

Drama Featuring Little Jackie Saunders in Leading Role at Colonial Today.

For those who demand a better sort of photoplay, there will be presented at the Colonial theater today an excellent three part drama, "The Square Triangle."

It tells the story of how three men form a sort of club called the "Square Triangle" to care for the daughter of a dying comrade. The part of the daughter is portrayed in a charming manner by Miss Jackie Saunders.

The co-attraction on today's program is a three reel thriller "The End of the Bridge," a drama which depicts the stirring scenes in which a clever young detective saves his sweetheart's brother and ends the activities of a band of crooks.

"Runaway June" Tomorrow.

Tomorrow there comes to the Colonial the wonderful "Runaway June" serial. This play will be greeted with much interest on the part of theater-goers of Fort Wayne, because of its delightful comedy, its thrilling dramatic scenes and its heart interest.

George Randolph Chester and Lillian Chester, his wife, wrote this story especially for the pictures, which will appear at the Colonial every Wednesday for 15 weeks. There will also be shown a three-reel drama featuring Jackie Saunders.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

"A FOOL THERE WAS."

Photoplayed Versian of Famous Drama at Jefferson for Single Engagement.

"A fool there was and he made his prayer,
(Even as you or I)
To a rag and a bone and a hank of hair."

—Kipling.

The tremendous power of these famous lines have stirred people as no other poem has done, and the impressive significance of the appeal finding a responsive note in the hearts of all of all those who understand life and its vicissitudes. This poem proved the inspiration that spurred Porter Emerson Browne to write his wonderful dramatic success, "A Fool There Was," a play that scored a phenomenal triumph when it was presented by Robert Hilliard some years ago.

In the photoplayed version of this drama, which appears at the Jefferson theater today, the producers have given this play a picturized presentation that will prove more of a revelation to theater-goers than the legitimate adaptation did. Richard Jose, one of the most finished actors of the regular stage, has the trying role of "the Fool," a role acted by this artist with magnificent power. Theda Bara, another notable recruit from the footlights, enacts the repulsive figure of "the Vampire" with a fidelity that is at all times worthy of the prototype. Miss Bara is a woman of striking beauty.

Princess Hilda of Luxemburg.

Although she has just celebrated her eighteenth birthday anniversary, Princess Hilda, one of the six young princesses of Luxemburg, declines to grow up and assume the airs and dignity of a royal young lady.

The princess is devoted to out-door sports and, according to court gossip, she'd rather ride in a hurdle race or play tennis than attend court functions.

ENEMY SWALLOWED BY JEALOUS TROUT

Romance in Connecticut Where Even the Fishes Fall in Love.

Winsted, Conn., Jan. 12.—Ever hear of a trout being in love, turning cannibal and committing murder?

Last autumn two trout, each measuring ten inches, were taken from a small spring at Wintergreen estate, Highland lake, and placed in a deep spring, ten feet between walls, where Pete, a tame trout, fifteen inches long, had made his home for seven years without a companion.

Pete at once took a liking to one of the trout, but whenever the lid of the spring was raised he would glide through the water after the other one, and whenever close enough tried to bite the fleeing fish. It also was noticed at feeding time, when bits of meat were dropped into the water, that Pete did not object when his friends rose from the sandy bottom to get a bite, but kept his eyes on the other fellow and immediately gave chase if he tried to get any food. Jealous Pete more than once filled his mouth so full of liver that he could not close it.

The protracted drought caused the water level to drop from eight feet to two and the trout whose life Pete had sought for three months fell a victim to the big trout's prowess, the shallow water not giving him the room he had been accustomed to when fleeing from Pete's assaults. When the lid of the spring was raised yesterday only two trout were to be seen. Pete and his friend. From Pete's mouth protruded the tail of the missing fish.

Pete was easily captured and the dead trout extracted with difficulty. Today Pete appeared none the worse for his experience and contented with his one companion.

BOY GIVES CUTICLE TO SAVE HIS SISTER

Pittsburg Lad Parts With Twenty Inches of Skin for Fire Victim.

Pittsburg, Jan. 12.—If Katherine Pearson, aged 15, daughter of Mrs. Letitia Martin, a negress of McCague place, Swissvale, recovers from the burns that she suffered at her home, about a month ago, it will be due to her seven-year-old brother, David, who submitted to an operation by which 20 square inches of skin were transferred from his legs to the limbs of his sister. The operation took place at the Allegheny General hospital and both brother and sister are said to be recovering. John Pearson, aged 5, another son of Mrs. Martin, is also in the hospital, having been burned by the explosion of gas which burned his sister.

Katherine and John were in bed when the explosion occurred, leaking gas presumably having ignited from a stove. The shock blew out windows and doors and ignited the clothing of both children. Katherine extinguished the blaze in her brother's clothing and in so doing was badly burned herself. The skin-grafting was the only chance for the girl's recovery and the little brother volunteered. He walked to the hospital and to the operating table.

Mrs. C. H. Davies, 1036 Columbia avenue, was taken suddenly ill Monday with an acute attack of appendicitis. She was immediately removed to the St. Joseph hospital and was operated on at 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon. She is improving nicely.

DAMAGE SUITS ARE SENT FROM COUNTY

Rehm Cases for $30,000 Against Interurban Go to Lagrange.

On affidavit of the defendant that that there is a prejudice against it in Allen county that prevents a fair and impartial trial the suit of Daniel Rehm and his wife, Orpha Rehm, against the Fort Wayne & Northwestern Interurban company for damages has been sent by Judge Yaple, of the Allen superior court, where the suits were filed, to the Lagrange circuit court for trial. Mrs. Rehm sued for $20,000 damages and Mr. Rehm for $10,000 damages, alleging that the defendant was responsible for injuries they received last summer when the Rehm automobile was struck at a crossing north of Avilla by a Fort Wayne & Northwestern interurban car. Mr. and Mrs. Rehm were both badly injured and their 17-year-old aughter, Amber, and Mrs. Anrew Blume, of St. Joe township, were killed.

Sues Absconding Husband.

Florence Houck has brought suit in the superior court against Alonzo D. Houck for divorce. She says they were married April 3, 1911, and separated August 16, 1914, when the defendant deserted her. She charges inadequate support and cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff asks the custody of a child thre years old an an allowance for its support.

Notes of the Courts.

In the circuit court Susannah and Jonathan Shull have filed a complaint asking that Allen G. Dunten be enjoined from disposing of two notes for $50 and $100 given in part payment for a moving picture show in the town of Waterloo, purchased last summer by the plaintiffs. It is set out that after having purchased the place supposing all its belongings were free from encumbrance William D. Swank took possession of a piano against which he had claims. The complaint says that Dunten will sell the notes and so defraud them if not restrained.

Judge Yaple in the superior court has appointed Hon. Guy Colerick special judge to try the case of H. G. Raymond vs. the Home Supply company.

An amended complaint has been filed in the circuit court in the suit of Louis F. Ormiston vs. Joseph F. Zurbaugh for damages.

The Grabill State bank has filed suit in the superior court against W. H. Langham and John Langham on note for $410 and another against John Langham and W. H. Langham on note for $420.

In the circuit court Judge Eggeman approved the finding of a lunacy commission that declared Carl Schindler of unsound mind and will appoint a guardian for Schindler, who had given for almost nothing a deed for property worth $1,500. A suit to set aside the conveyance will probably be instituted.

George D. Mills has petitioned the superior court to modify an order requiring him to pay $10 a month to his wife. He says he can get little work and the payments are a burden. He wants the allowance cut to $5 monthly.

In the circuit court Louis Roy has brought suit against Charles Bacon to collect $90 on account.

The Tri-State Loan and Trust company, as administrator of the estate of the late John Valparo, has petitioned the circuit court to find that the estate is not subject to the inheritance tax law. The estate is valued at $2,161.37 and all the heirs of the deceased reside in Italy.

CONSTANTINOPLE ON VERGE OF STARVATION

New York, Jan. 12.—The closing of the Dardanelles and the shutting off of Turkey from outside commerce has resulted in the people of Constantinople being reduced almost to the verge of starvation, according to George Tomayan of Chicago, for the past eighteen months in charge of an American orphan asylum at Constantinople who arrived here today on the Greek steamship Athinai from Piraeus.

"When I left Constantinople less than a month ago," he said, "that city was reduced to sore straits for food, all available supplies having been confiscated by military authorities. Suffering among the people was intense and the struggle for food by the poor is pitiful in the extreme."

GIRLS EMPLOYED IN BIG HOTEL SALOON

Manager of Waldorf-Astoria Hires Two Young Women as Cashiers.

New York, Jan. 11.—One absent minded individual who finds solace in a lonely drink at the Waldorf-Astoria bar has been known to be so forgetful that he has gulped down the water chaser and left the whisky stand on the bar. This was the type of man who in a thoughtful mood walked in from the oak room of the Waldorf-Astoria reading a legal document, quickly finished a glass of sherry and then went to the cashier's desk to liquidate his indebtedness. He chanced to look up, and to his amazement he saw a young woman presiding over the desk, and a second glance told him that another young woman was in charge of the cigar counter.

The news that women were in the Waldorf-Astoria bar soon spread to old customers, who although they were not—so they said—in the habit of drinking anything before 6 o'clock decided that to really see that there were women cashiers in the bar they must take a drink and then buy a cigar.

"What little queens" said one man as he meandered out into the lobby. "Best idea I ever heard of. Kind of English, you know. Soon Mr. Boldt will be having barmaids, same as they do over in the old country."

"This makes a highball all the more interesting," quoth another man. "And it has the advantage of keeping men within bounds when they are liable to use expletives."

SALARY LIST FOR LIGHT DEPARTMENT

Board of Works to Ask the Council for Ordinance to Fix Pay.

That the city council may know and approve the salaries that rule for the various officials and employes in the city light and power works department, the board of works will present at Tuesday night's meeting an ordinance establishing a salary list. This list was prepared and approved at a meeting of the board with Mayor Hosey and Secretary-Superintendent John Wessel, of the department. The monthly salaries the council will be asked to establish are as follows:

Secretary and superintendent, $125; superintendent and chief electrician, $150; chief engineer at power house, $150; auditor, $100; foreman of meter department, $90; ledger clerk, $70; assistant clerks, $60; stenographer, $40; solicitors, $75; draughtsman and clerk, $75; general foreman of line construction, $90; firemen, $65; service men, $75; municipal lighting contract service men, $70; meter inspectors and testers, $70; meter readers, $60.

These are of course maximum salaries and are not in all cases the salaries that are being paid. In some cases the pay at present is less. The council has never established a salary list for the lighting department and the board wants that body to know what salaries are the rule.

WANT FOSTER RETAINED.

Federation of Labor Asks His Reappointment to Park Board.

The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, at its regular meeting, Monday evening, adopted resolutions expressing the appreciation of that body of the gift of Foster park to the city by Col. D. N. Foster, president of the park board, and

Whereas, The term of Col. David N. Foster as park commissioner expires on February 1st, 1915; and

Whereas, Col. Foster has done so much toward the establishment of a park system and centers of recreation; and

Whereas, He and his brother, the Hon. S. M. Foster, have just recently made a gift to the city in donating Foster park, the largest in the city; and

Whereas, We believe that other wealthy men will make similar or other benefactions to our city if accorded the proper treatment. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, most respectfully petition Hon. Wm. J. Hosey, mayor, to reappoint Col. D. N. Foster to succeed himself at the expiration of his term.

The resolution bears the signatures of Joseph D. Shaw, Wm. A. Jackson, A. C. Berger, secretary, Clayton H. Johnson, Thos. Cross, P. R. Bell, W. H. Stevens, J. C. Miller, Louis Kammer, Joe Siemon, J. C. Werkman and Frank J. McCarthy.

AGAINST PARK ASSESSMENT.

Hanna School Meeting Strong in Opposition to Weisser Enlargement.

At a well attended meeting held Monday night in the Hanna public school building citizens of the Seventh and Tenth wards went strongly on record against the park board's proposals for the enlargement and improvement of Weisser park. As against the proposition ninety-five votes were recorded, whereas but seven were counted in favor of it. At the same time resolutions in condemnation of the present park board law and praying the legislature to change it were passed by a vote that was unanimous. Col. D. N. Foster, president, and Charles J. Steiss, secretary of the park board, were present by invitation, this being the first time that advocates of the plan had been present at opposition meetings. Colonel Foster, explaining that the assessments were low and that none would subsequently be made for Weisser park, pledged that he would "leave town if you are assessed more than once for Weisser park." President Foster spoke of the improvements that already had been made in Weisser park from the general park funds, and said that if the assessments proposed and the sale of property to be acquired in the plans for enlargement did not produce enough money to carry out the enlargement and improvements the balance would be made up from the general work fund. Mayor Hosey spoke to the meeting and said his interest in the proposal began and ended in a purpose to see that the property owners got a square deal; and that if a majority of them were in favor of the plans he had no protest to make. He had been elected on a platform that pledged him to have the objectionable features of the park law removed, he said, and would do all he could to redeem that pledge. Among others who addressed the meeting were Attorney Foster, declaring that opposition to the Weisser park plans had developed into a personal fight on the park board president.

ORDER PLANS FOR SEWERS.

The board of works at Monday afternoon's meeting ordered plans for two new sewer systems that are sorely needed, as was detailed in this department several days ago. One is to drain the territory east of Wabash avenue, south of Maumee avenue, west of Roy street and north of the Pennsylvania tracks. roFa long time the residents of that vicinity have been clamoring for this drinage system and Councilman A. H. Keller, of the Eighth ward, has labored with unceasing zeal to promote action. The other system will drain the Spy Run region. The board also ordered plans for a local sewer in the alley between Hoagland avenue and Webster streets, from Rudisill boulevard to Lexington avenue.

WILL NOT ASK A CHANGE.

The city council will not be asked at Tuesday night's meeting to consider an amendment of the ordinance that provides for the weight of loaves of bread to be either one pound or two pounds. At a meeting of master bakers held in the Commercial club Monday afternoon, six of the leading bread manufacturers decided by unanimous vote to make no effort to have the ordinance changed to permit reduction in weight of loaves. There has not been any prospect that such a proposal would meet with success in the council.

BIG MONTH FOR LIGHTING.

Secretary John Wessel, of the city lighting department, has submitted to the board of works figures showing that the month of December was a record breaker in the matter of new contracts. There was a net gain of 402 contracts during that month and all of these were hooked up to city lines without the setting of a new pole, all of them being secured on lines already established. This has been a great gain for the department and the more so because it was made at the minimum of expense.

NEW STREET LIGHTS.

The board of works has authorized the city lighting department to install new street lights at Broadway and McKinnie avenue, at the south end of Greenwood avenue and a lamp in the alley between Fairfield avenue and Fulton street at a point between Brackenridge street and Jefferson street.

CRUEL WOMAN SENT TO HIGHER COURT

Ethel Green Admits Beating of Blind Little Clark Child.

After a hearing in the city court, during which she had admitted that she had beaten 4-year-old blind Martha Clark, of 2815 Hoagland avenue, Judge Kerr bound Ethel Green over to the circuit court, remarking as he did so that his court did not have jurisdiction to inflict an adequate penalty. She was charged with assault and battery.

The Green woman, who is 18 years old, has been employed for five months at the home of Joseph E. Clark, the blind piano tuner whose wife deserted him nearly a year ago, to keep house for him and take care of his two little girls aged 3 and 4 years. She was arrested Monday afternoon after an investigation by Police Lieutenant Harry Grimme, Deputy Prosecutor Stephen A. Callahan and Police Matron Winch had established that Martha Clark had been for a long time subjected to a course of almost inhuman treatment by the housekeeper.

At the city court hearing Lieutenant Grimme, Patrolman Hartsell and Matron Winch testified to the shocking condition of the little blind girl's body. Miss Green admitted that she had whipped the child with a heavy cane about noon Monday after having undressed the little one's clothing to put her to bed. The baby's screams aroused the neighborhood and the police were called. Miss Green said that she punished the child on previous occasions.

Judge Kerr gave the [illegible] domestic a terrible [illegible] he could not consider [illegible] ture so cruel as to [illegible] on a little child [illegible] Miss Green [illegible]

BIG CATCHER WILL RETURN IN SPRING

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 12.—"Matty" McGraw, the Adonis of the Central league catching ranks two years ago, will appear in a Grand Rapids uniform again next season. President Essick, of the local baseball team, annduced yesterday that he had purchased the release of the tall receiver from Milwaukee. Knowing the style of a performer McGraw is, there is no room for doubt but what the local club will be amply protected in the catching department, in which they were very weak all last season.

Essick also announced yesterday that he has deals under way which will bring from one to three class AA infielders here this spring and three more outfielders new to Grand Rapids people will be purchased. Grimes will be the only one of last season's garden trio to return. Marshall has been traded to Fort Wayne and O'Day will undoubtedly go with the Springfield franchise, as will Reilly and Umlauff. McKillen, secured from the Cleveland Americans, will be one of the newcomers, but the others have not been named. He will also get three more experienced pitchers.

EVERS TELLS JUST HOW IT HAPPENED

Great Second Baseman Says It Was His First "Bone" Play in Game.

(By John Evers).

John Evers tells in the Baseball Magazine just how he made that bone in the world series:

"I was approached by newspaper men the same evening," says Evers, "and asked about the play and how I happened to make it. I admitted freely and frankly that it was a bone and let it go at that. I haven't said anything about it since. It was a bonehead play. There is no doubt about that. But I don't think that it was as much of a bonehead play as it seemed though I may be prejudiced.

"When that ball was hit to me I was anxious to get it. I had my mind on getting it just as soon as possible, for with three men on and the game in extra innings any slip may mean a score. No doubt I was too anxious and it is no excuse if I was. At any rate the ball made a rather awkward bound before it reached me and hit me in the chest. It hurt some and disconcerted me to that extent, though I am not saying that was an excuse for my playing it as I did. When it struck me in the chest it bounded away several feet and I made after it mechanically. But as I chased it the thought was in my mind that the game was lost. I was sore to think I had let the ball get away from me like that, on what looked like a simple stop. I was sore to think that through a lack of good fielding on my part the game was lost, we had fought so hard to win. That was all. I didn't think of the men on the bases. I didn't think of the crowd, or the other players on the team. It didn't even occur to me that it made any difference whether the Athletics scored one run or two runs so long as they scored. For I felt that the game was lost, and that it was my failure to field my position as I would have liked to field it, that had lost it. While I was recovering the ball Schang was scoring and Murphy going to third. But seeing that I was in a trance Murphy kept on to the plate. Now I became faintly aware that the other players were yelling at me to throw the ball. But I didn't see Murphy before he reached the plate. I don't know how I would have fared if I had seen him for Murphy is one of the fastest men in the game. Probably I could have caught him all right. I don't know. But I didn't see him until after he had crossed the plate and was walking to the bench. All this time I had been standing there with my head down kicking myself to think that we had lost the game. I had no other thought. And it is a remarkable thing, for in all my playing I never remember before to have stood that way with my head down. When I was on the Cubs I used always to be calling out 'Heads up' to the other players. It was a favorite phrase of mine, and I acted on it myself. My attitude always was to keep my head up and fighting till it was all over. And I am sore to think I should pick out such an occasion as this to act contrary to my lifetime custom and hang my head while an extra runner was scoring. It isn't very pleasant for me to think of, though I was fortunate in that my misplay didn't cost the game, for we won out in the end. It was the oddest play I ever made and the hardest to explain now though it seemed perfectly simple to me at the time."

"It was a bone play, I won't deny that," said Stallings, "but we all make them. If no one ever made more than Evers baseball would be a different game. But even he had his share at it that time. The spirit of the players, however, I want to say, was the finest thing I have ever seen on a ball ground. Naturally Evers was completely knocked out when the realization of what he had done came over him. He sat on the bench like a man stunned or stricken with paralysis. I tried to get him out of it by telling him, 'brace up so the young players won't see you in the dumps,' but he didn't. And then every man on the team came over and tried to cheer him up. 'Never mind, John,' they said, 'the game isn't over yet. We'll win yet and show them. Even if the game is lost, what of it? There's three more to play and we'll win the rag sure. It wasn't your fault, everybody slips up once in a while.' And they fairly pulled him out of his pessimism by main strength. It was a grand exhibition of team cooperation, and I was glad to see that later in the game Evers was able to help most effectually in the scoring and took a main part in pulling the game out of the fire after it had been lost apparently beyond hope."

Seldom So Close Made

HUNTINGTON HOPES FOR FUTURE GAMES

Therefore It Will Do Its Best in Contest With St. Paul.

If Huntington can show the speed at basketball that advance notices say it possesses it can find plenty of games here during the season as all of the local clubs are looking for good bookings.

Under these conditions it is to be expected that in the game against the St. Pauls at St. Paul's auditorium the visitors will give the public all they have in the way of speed and basket shooting. Then there is another thing.

Fort Wayne folks have been prone to regard anything that comes out of Huntington as small town stuff and this is galling so the basketball contingent will come all geared up to show that there is just as good athletic material over there as Fort Wayne possesses. This is the sort of feeling that makes basketball worth while and the spectators are pretty sure to get a run for their money.

Huntington has played Zanesville some pretty close games and is firmly convinced that it is in the same class as the Weaver five. This can be judged after the encounter with St. Paul.

Considerable interest centers around the first game when the St. Paul Nationals meet the Olympics in a junior city league contest. Both teams have perfect records so far and each will go into this game determined to stay in the 1.000 per cent. class. The teams will line up same as they did in last week's games and a great battle is expected. The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock so as to be over in plenty of time for the St. Paul-Huntington game.

Basketball Notes.

Manager Parrot, of the Wayne club of Notre Dame university, has been compelled to cancel the game booked against the Lyceum Aeolians on Wednesday night because the faculty will not permit the students to make the trip. Spencerville has been booked to fill the date.

Professionals in other lines of sport will not be barred from participation in the games of the Junior basketball league under a decision reached at a meeting on Monday night. The entry fees were advanced from a nickel to a dime and the schedule for the week is as follows:

Tuesday night—Nationals vs. Olympics, at St. Paul's auditorium. Tuesday night—Rexalls vs. T. O. P.'s at Jefferson school. Thursday night—Wayne Knits vs. Precious Blood Maroons, at Minor school gym. Saturday night—Aeolians vs. Bachelors, at Lyceum auditorium.

COLLEGE PITCHER FOR CUBS.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Paul Des Jardien, star center of the University of Chicago football team, regarded as one of the best baseball pitchers in the "Big nine," will join the Chicago club of the National league in June, according to a story published here today. Des Jardien declined at this time, it was said, to sign a contract as he did not want to endanger his amateur standing by signing to play professional baseball. He agreed, however, to sign as soon as he received his diploma in June.

O'DAY IS IMPROVING.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Henry O'Day, former manager of the Chicago Nationals, and veteran umpire, who underwent an operation for stomach trouble yesterday, was said today to be improving. He will be obliged to remain in the hospital for two weeks, it was said.

OLD RIVALS START THE 1915 CONTEST

St. Mary's and Concordia College Will Play First Game in City Series.

Old rivals will meet on the basketball floor when St. Mary's Athletics and the Concordia college five start the city series at St. Paul's auditorium on Friday night of this week and the question of which is the best of the first string clubs of Fort Wayne will be decided before the ball taps for the close.

Clubs representing the college and the athletic club have met several times and as each has a big following the crowds in attendance have aroused a rivalry that still exists and that will hold throughout the present season.

This feeling will spur both clubs to action and each of them will enter the series in the best condition as a victory at the start will give the winner an edge and that is a good thing to carry into the next meeting.

In the preliminary the Concordia seconds will play the Precious Blood Maroons and this curtain raiser promises to be a scrappy sort of an affair as Concordia has been romping away with victories in the games against the second string clubs of Fort Wayne.

Tickets will be on sale at the Koehlinger drug store, Washington boulevard and Harmer street, and at the Schirmeyer cigar store.

RACING QUEEN CHALLENGES HER SEX FOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP.

MISS MYRTLE STEADMAN.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12.—The challenge of Miss Myrtle Steadman against all other drivers of her sex to contest for a woman's championship auto race has roused response all over the country, and the outcome may soon be one of the most sensational sporting events ever staged in the west.

Miss Steadman, a Los Angeles girl, recognized as a daring speed-burner, wants to show the world that women have the nerve and ability to drive racing autos as fast or even a little faster than the famed male mahouts.

Miss Lillian Hayward, another California girl, has already accepted Miss Steadman's defi.

The winner of the first battle of racing women will rightly deserve the title, "Queen of the racing world," said Miss Steadman, "and maybe a little later we'll challenge some of the kings."

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

BABE FALLS FAR; LITTLE HURT.

Tot at Huntington Drops From Second Story to Cement Walk.

Huntington, Ind., Jan. 12.—A fall from a two-story window to a cement sidewalk, and only one little scar to show for it. That is what a physician says of one of the narrowest escapes a boy ever had in Huntington.

Robret Meyers, age two, a little chap with lots of nerve in his little body, tumbled from the second story of the Spencer house Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

He fell on his face on the hard cement sidewalk on State street with such force that it was feared his neck was broken and his body would be a mass of bruises.

Not a bone was broken. There were several large gashes in his lip and some of his teeth were broken off or knocked out, but up to this time the physician has found no symptoms of serious injuries.

FOUND DEAD IN CHAIR.

Bluffton, Ind., Jan. 12.—Ira Taylor, a brother of Zeke Taylor, of this city, was found dead in his chair, at his home one-half mile east of Liberty Center, early in the morning, by his wife. He had been a sufferer from organic heart trouble, complicated by goitre for the past six months, and his death is ascribed to heart trouble. He was obliged to take his rest in a large Morris chair being unable to lie down in bed because of the heart trouble. Mr. Taylor had been a resident of Wells county almost all his life and was 64 years old. He followed farming and blacksmithing for some time in the vicinity of Bly, coming six or seven years ago to make his home one-half mile east of Liberty Center.

MARRIED FIFTY-SIX YEARS.

Huntington, Ind., Jan. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. George V. Griffith, of this city, have just celebrated the fifty-sixth anniversary of their marriage, an event made memorable by the reception of two hundred friends of the aged couple at their North Jefferson street home, which was gay and fragrant with flowers. Mr. Griffith and Evaline Woolsey were united in marriage in Jordan, N. Y., and moved to Norfolk, Ohio, in 1854 and six years later went to Fort Wayne, where they resided until 1869, when they came to Huntington. Mr. Griffith established here the G. Griffith & Sons sawmills, which a few years ago were moved to Albany, Ind., because the timber hereabouts was exhausted.

BANK INCREASES CAPITAL.

Churubusco, Ind., Jan. 12.—The Exchange bank, of Churubusco, owned by Oscar Gandy & company has increased its capitalization from $25,000 to $50,000, making it one of the strongest institutions of its character in the county. Under careful and conservative methods, the bank has enjoyed a substantial growth and Mr. Gandy and his sons have convinced the public that they are thoroughly competent and successful business men. Their investments are large and they carry on extensive business operations over the northern part of the state.

GETTING READ FOR BOB JONES.

Hartford City, Ind., Jan. 12.—Work has begun here on the big tabernacle that is to be used in the Bob Jones revival meetings that will be inaugurated early next month. Ministers of the Protestant churches announced from their pulpits Sunday that volunteers would be needed Monday to erect the building. Yesterday carpenters under the direction of John Messner and Ed Clark started to erect the frame work. The tabernacle will be 120 by 130 feet in dimensions and will have a seating capacity of 3,000. John M. Bonham has been chosen general secretary of the meeting.

AGED WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Kendallville, Ind., Jan. 12.—Mrs. C. A. Brothwell, aged 80 years, was found dead in bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Steven Rinehart, on Mott street, after 6 o'clock, following a day's illness. Death was the result of neuritis. The decedent was born in New York state, February 22, 1835, and had been a resident of this vicinity for a number of years. For the last three years she had made her home with her daughter here. Her husband preceded her in death about five years. Surviving besides Mrs. Rinehart are three daughters.

GIVES WIFE A DIVORCE.

Decatur, Ind., Jan. 12.—In the circuit court, Judge Smith has announced his findings and rendered judgment in the divorce case of Della A. Andrews against Robert Andrews. The court found for the plaintiff on her complaint and against the defendant on his cross complaint and granted her alimony in the sum of $500. The custody of an only son was given the defendant. The evidence in the case was placed early in the term, since which time the court had the matter under advisement.

KENDALLVILLE PARTY COMING.

Kendallville, Ind., Jan. 12.—At a meeting of the Ministerial association it was decided to arrange a party to attend the Lyon evangelistic meetings at Fort Wayne on Friday evening, January 15. It is hoped to get at least sixty in the party, so that a special car can be procured to make the trip. The car would leave at 5:45 o'clock, with a ninety-cent fare for the round trip. Men have been appointed in each church to get the names of those wishing to go.

RECOVERS FROM BULLET WOUND.

Bluffton, Ind., Jan. 12.— James Huss, aged 15, has been brought home from Pennville hospital, where he underwent an operation following an accident three weeks ago. While hunting with his brother the latter accidentally shot James in the abdomen, and the 22-caliber bullet penetrated the intestines. He is now able to walk about his home. He is a son of James Huss, a local teamster.

NEW JUDGE ON BENCH.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who clung to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Fort Wayne Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Fort Wayne given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys, can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:

Mrs. Josephine Yehl, 1835 Force St., Fort Wayne, says: "One of my family took Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to be just what was needed. He suffered from severe pains across his back, together with weakness of the kidneys. He used one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and that was all that was needed to make a lasting cure. I advise anyone who has kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Yehl recommends. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Smooths Out the Wrinkles

Worry causes more wrinkles on young faces than is traced thereon by the fingers of Old Father Time. And all household duties are sources of worriment, either in the doing or in having them done.

The old rhyme "man works from sun to sun—woman's work is never done," always will be thus until women decide to banish worriment by taking advantage of the many truly labor saving and trouble abolishing household devices, which they can now obtain and use at trifling cost.

is one of these. It does a week's ironing at a cost of about fifteen cents for electricity. It smooths out all ironing day troubles, also, the crow's feet and wrinkles, which "worry" paints on faces young and fair.

Come in and try one. We handle all the latest types and sizes of G-E Irons.

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid [illegible]

DRIVER AND HORSE INSTANTLY KILLED

Farmer Frank Selmon Goes to Sleep in Buggy and is Struck by Train.

Frank Selmon, a farmer residing in Porter county, and his horse were instantly killed on the Montdale crossing of the Pennsylvania road four miles east of Valparaiso some time last night. The railway officials at the hour this is written had not found out what train struck the rig. The dead man and his horse were discovered at the south side of the tracks by Conductor Peterson and their position indicated that they had been struck by an eastbound train. Selmon, the railway men say, was in the habit of going to Valparaiso and filling up on booze, and it is said that he was in that condition when friends put him in his buggy and started him homeward last night. His watch stopped at 1:23 o'clock this morning and it is presumed that the accident happened at that time. The faithful old horse, it is said, had taken him home safely when he was asleep in the buggy several times, but it failed to do it last night.

TO BOOM CO-OPERATIVE STORES.

Federation of Labor Calls a Mass Meeting for Next Monday.

An important part of the proceedings of the meeting of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor last night was the preliminary arrangements for a mass meeting to be held next Monday night for the purpose of boosting the proposition to establish co-operative stores in Fort Wayne. Manager Phillips, of the Indianapolis store, will be invited to attend the meeting and he will probably be here. The movement is to be given all possible support by the local federation and with that end in view President J. D. Shaw last night appointed P. R. Bell, Clayton H. Johnson, J. E. Wolf, Harry Roesner and W. J. McCarthy a committee to act with the committees selected by the various unions on the co-operative plan.

Another matter which attracted considerable interest was a resolution bearing the signatures of J. D. Shaw, William A. Jackson, A. C. Berger, Clayton H. Johnson, Thomas Cross, P. R. Bell, J. C. Werkman, F. J. McCarthy, W. H. Stevens, J. C. Miller, Louis Kammer and Joseph Simon asking that Col. D. N. Foster be reappointed on the park board. It was passed without much opposition.

President Shaw named the Labor day committee as follows: Joseph D. Shaw, William A. Jackson, J. C. Werkman, J. J. Perrey, A. C. Berger, Clayton H. Johnson, F. J. McCarthy, Joseph Deahl, F. J. Schwanz, J. E. Wolf and Oscar Huber.

John J. Daley, who had been attending a meeting of the executive board of the Indiana State Federation of Labor, reported that the committee had a compensation law ready to be introduced in the state legislature, and also that Clayton H. Johnson had been named on the prison labor committee of the state labor body.

BRUCE SENDS CONGRATULATIONS.

Public Service Commissioner is Proud of Pennsylvania Railroad.

Upon receipt of news to the effect that the Pennsylvania carried 189,167,326 passengers in 1914, without killing one of them, W. Cabell Bruce wrote to the management of the company as follows: "Your record in this respect is one, it seems to me, of which every American citizen should be proud. Personally I have long felt that there is nothing human that approaches so nearly the movements of the heavenly bodies in point of organization and system as the movement of passenger trains on those portions of the Pennsylvania lines with which I am familiar."

On the same subject the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph of January 9 said: "Passengers are in next to no danger when they travel on a railroad managed by men intelligently devoted to preventing accidents. When the interest in safety relaxes violent death begins to take toll again.

"Last year the Pennsylvania Railroad system carried 189,167,326 passengers without injury to one of them. This perfect score is the culmination of a swift and steady growth toward safety by the railroad in question. In four of the past seven years the Pennsylvania Lines East of Pittsburgh have equaled this record. Here is an accomplishment which all the railroads in the United States should be obliged to emulate. They can do it if they try hard enough."

MAY BUY MOVIES OUTFIT.

Electro-Technic Club Planning for Entertaining Members.

As an entertaining and educational feature, the Electro-Technic club will consider at the meeting next Friday night a proposition to purchase a moving picture outfit and install it in the assembly room at the Fort Wayne Electric works. If the project meets with general approval at the meeting, the purchase will be made at once so as to get the greatest possible service out of it during the balance of the lecture season. The moving picture outfit will, of course, be able to handle comic and dramatic films, but the primary object is to use it in exhibiting pictures of an educational nature. At the meeting next Friday it is expected, also, to announce the date of the lecture to be given by Art Smith, the "bird boy," which must be soon, for Mr. Smith wants to go south to meet some engagements with winter resort people on the gulf coast. He has some new flying apparatus of a different pattern from any yet exhibited, which he will demonstrate on this trip.

SECTION MEN HAVE MEETING.

Gather at Peru to Plan Work Methods for the Year 1915.

Fifty of the section foremen on the Peru division of the Wabash met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in that city Monday to talk over the matter of track upkeep and to devise a co-operative line of action for the spring work, soon to begin. Some of the maintenance of way officials, including E. C. Danes and Charles Palmer, were present and addressed the men. In summing up the conditions of the tracks on the several sections it developed that John Kindlesparker, of Rich Valley, and Aud Harper, of New Haven, had the best sections and they were made to arise in order that the others might take a look at the "champions," as E. C. Danes called them.

NO HARD TIMES THERE.

VanArnam Company's Books Well Filled With Orders.

In a business way the VanArnam company is in a class of its own this year, the president announcing recently that the company had more orders on its books for factory products than were on hand at this time a year ago. This means that the company will declare the usual dividend. Yesterday afternoon the stockholders held a meeting and re-elected the old board of directors and officers as follows: G. H. VanArnam, A. C. Becker, E. E. Parker, F. L. Smock, S. M. Foster, A. H. Perfect and F. L. Jones. The officers are: G. H. VanArnam, president and treasurer; A. C. Becker, vice president; E. E. This is the third contract Mr. Slater has made with one firm for tanks of this description, the total number being in the neighborhood of 125. The work on the tanks is all performed by boilermakers and makes busy times for that department of the shops.

PIANO GOES TO LAFAYETTE.

Fort Wayne came very near winning the $900 piano offered by the Liggett-Meyer Tobacco company in a contest for Indiana railroad men. There were two contestants in this city, Roy Kercheval, assistant ticket agent of the Lake Shore, and W. E. Ferguson, a conductor on the Pennsylvania road, and for six consecutive terms the president of Fort Wayne lodge, No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and each came very near the winning point. The contest resulted as follows: H. C. Steghorst, of Lafayette, first; Roy Kercheval, Fort Wayne, second; W. E. Ferguson, Fort Wayne, third, and Van Hays, Logansport, fourth.

NEW METHOD OF CARRYING MILK.

The people of Pittsburgh now receive nearly or quite all of their milk in the latest designs of refrigerator cars, and the Department of Agriculture has issued a circular telling how the agents of the department have been chiefly instrumental in bringing about this improvement; much of the milk having formerly been brought in ordinary baggage cars where its quality was much impaired by the heat. The inspectors of the government had found that some of the milk contained 22,800,000 microbes (or other animals) per cubic centimeter.

HARRY ERDLE HAS RETURNED.

He took in several of the large eastern cities, including Washington, New York and Philadelphia, on his wedding trip.

ONLY ONE CENT A WORD

THE MARKETS

WHEAT PRICES ARE ON THE DOWN GRADE

The prospect of future prices on wheat per bushel is not very bright in the eyes of the producer as it seems possible that the prices will go down to where they were a few weeks ago. The local dealers only offered $1.28 to $1.30 a bushel for the farmer's product Tuesday morning. However a dealer stated that there was a small raise in wheat prices on the big markets Tuesday morning and that perhaps Wednesday it would go up a few cents but nevertheless he could say nothing definite about it. "It's a rather ticklish proposition," he remarked, when asked about the dealings in wheat.

What the cause of the prices being on the down grade Tuesday cannot exactly be determined but it may lay in the fact of the government's investigation into the possibility of a bread famine at Chicago Monday, when a federal prober announced that the prices were artificial and that the law of supply and demand did not warrant the present prices.

The city scalemaster reports that farmers are busily engaged hauling their hay to the markets and as a result thirty-one loads tipped the scales Tuesday morning. Hay has kept a good price all winter, selling from $14 to $16 a ton. All other markets were small Tuesday. Corn prices show a tendency to go upward.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Unexpected strength in prices at Liverpool led to a sharp upturn today in the wheat market here. The bulls were encouraged, too, by reports that Turkey had conceded all of Italy's demands, and that exporters and millers were active buyers. The opening, which ranged from 1¾c to 2½c higher, was followed by a moderate further advance.

The close was strong at 3c to 3⅛@3⅜c above last night.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening unchanged to ⅜c up, prices scored decided gains all around.

The close, though, was firm at ⅝@⅝c to ¾@⅞c net advance.

Oats went higher with other grain. Selling was only of a scattered sort.

Less plentiful receipts of hogs than had been looked for helped to lift provisions. Good cash demand for lard counted further against the bears.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 12.—Variable price movements marked early dealings on the stock exchange today, with indications of a halt in the recent rise. The leaders were mostly a trifle under yesterday's close, Amalgamated Copper and Reading being the most notable exceptions. A one-point decline in Bethlehem Steel sent that stock down to the level of U. S. Steel, which opened with a slight gain.

St. Paul was strongest of the prominent railways. London offered no promise to local speculation, Americans being generally lower.

Trading was on an increasing scale of activity during the first hour, but relapsed into dullness later. The movement as a whole was narrower than yesterday's but all material advances, of which there were a number, were confined to specialties. Steel was the only favorite to rise above its best price of the preceding session, other leaders holding at or under the level.

Steel 5s were prominent in the bond division, with Northern Pacific 3s, but Rock Island collaterals were weak.

Lack of demand and short selling produced lower prices in the final trading, some prominent issues and Coppers falling under yesterday's [illegible] United Dry Goods [illegible] road. In this engagement two officers and 140 men fell into our hands.

"In the battles on the eastern side of 8th, including those already mentioned, the Argonne were taken since January one major, three captains, thirteen lieutenants and 1,600 men. The French total losses, including killed and injured, in this battle are, consequently, estimated at 3,500 men.

"An attempt of the French to make an attack at Ailley, to the south of St. Mihiel, on the river Meuse, failed.

"There is nothing new to report from east Prussia.

"The Russian attempt to advance in northern Poland was unsuccessful.

"Our attacks in the district to the west of the Vistula river have made progress in certain places, notwithstanding the bad weather.

"On the eastern bank of the Pilica river, southern Poland, the situation continues the same."

CANNONADING INTERMITTENT.

Paris Sums Up Activities Along the Western Battle Front.

Paris, Jan. 12.—(2:40 p. m.)—The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement as follows:

"From the sea to the Oise there was yesterday an intermittent cannonading fairly violent at certain places.

"On the Aisne to the north of Soissons, determined attacks have been delivered against the trenches occupied by us the 8th and the 10th of January. The enemy yesterday attacked our positions several times. We repulsed him and we took possession of more trenches.

"From Soissons to Rheims there were artillery charges. Other heavy pieces of artillery responded efficaciously to the batteries and the mine throwers of the Germans.

"In Champagne, in the region of Souain there was yesterday very active shooting by our artillery directed against the positions of our adversaries near Perthes.

"Leefortin, situated to the north of the Beauxjour farm was the scene of desperate encounter. The enemy succeeded in setting up a trench at a point within a series of field works, the commanding position of which was held by us. This fighting is still going on.

"In the Argonne and as far as the Meuse there is nothing to report.

"On the heights of the Meuse there have been two German attacks, one at the forest of Consenvoye and the other at the forest of Bouchot. Each was repulsed.

"To the southeast of Cirey-Sur-Vesouse one of our detachments surprised and put to flight a German party which was pillaging the village of St. Sauveur.

"In the Vosges in Alsace the day passed quietly. Bad weather and the snowstorm continue."

STOLE A RIG AND MOVED HIS FAMILY

John Johnson Confesses to Taking Horse and Buggy at Aurora, Ill.

After sticking close to the job for almost two weeks, Detective Sergeant William F. Pappert ran to ground John Johnson, who is wanted in Aurora, Ill., for stealing a horse and buggy in which he moved his family from that city, took them to Chicago, where for $50 he sold the stolen property and then with the money made another relay of his flight by coming to Fort Wayne. The theft was committed December 26 and two days later Johnson, with his wife, his five-months-old child and his mother-in-law, landed in Fort Wayne. Aurora authorities had somehow learned that Johnson was in Fort Wayne and the town was combed in search of him. A young man named Webb was suspected to be the horsethief and was held for a few days, but finally convinced the officers he was innocent and he was released. Detective Pappert was informed that the mother-in-law in the Johnson combination was a clairvoyant and spiritualistic medium and for more than a week he had been attending seances and looking up fortune tellers without result. Finally he learned that a woman had telephoned the city comptroller's office for the lowest quotations on a clairvoyant's license and had gone no further when she was informed that $1,000 was the Fort Wayne scale. This furnished a clue, and Detective Pappert located the woman in apartments on the third floor at 219 East Main street. Monday evening, and there he found Mrs. Johnson, the baby and mother-in-law. Johnson was out. Before 6 o'clock Tuesday morning Detective Pappert and Detective Sergeant Charles Spillner called at the rooms and arrested Johnson, taking him from his bed. He was held on a fugitive warrant by the city court. After making some denials he confessed and said he would return to Aurora without formalities. His wife had previously told the officers enough to completely identify Johnson as the horse thief. Johnson is a cook by occupation. He has spent all of his money and the family is entirely destitute and their distress is augmented by the expectation of addition to their number in a few months. Aurora officers are expected here to get Johnson.

GETS A LONG JAIL TERM.

Tobacco Thief Pleads Guilty and is Given $10 and Costs and 90 Days.

John Murphy, in the city court Tuesday morning, pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was fined $10 and costs and given ninety days in the county jail. This will hold him till the green comes back to the trees. Murphy stole some bundles of tobacco valued at $16 from the basement of the Pony Cigar factory, on Calhoun street, and was arrested while he was trying to sell it.

Bernard Laughlin, who tried to shuffle off by drinking an ounce of iodine in his cell at police headquarters, Monday night, after he had been arrested for drunkenness, was able to be in court and was given a chance to get work or leave town. He was arrested at the Columbia street mission. Dr. J. Frank Dinnen, the police surgeon, pumped him out Monday night at headquarters after the police had discovered his essay to die.

Pat Green, whose face is becoming familiar in the city court, came to Fort Wayne Monday, got stewed and was found at the Nickel Plate depot by Officer Paul. He was charged with being intoxicated at a railroad depot and was fined $10 and costs, going to jail.

George Dougherty, Henry Kruse and Pat Toughey, drunks, were turned loose.

DISCARDS GUN AND ESCAPES.

Prowler on Street Flees When Trio of Cops Pursue.

People residing in the vicinity of Wayne and Harrison streets thought of a hostile invasion at 2:40 o'clock Tuesday morning when a succession of gunshot reports disturbed the quiet of the hour. Officers Hall and Godfrey saw a man on Harrison street, near Washington and approached him. The fellow wheeled and fled north to Wayne street, turning west on Wayne and continuing his flight. The officers pursued and fired their revolvers in the air to bring the fugitive to a halt. Officer Shaugnessy, over on Berry street, heard the shooting and cut down Webster street to Wayne and, sighting the fleeing man, unlimbered his artillery and began to shoot, but the fellow did not stop. At daylight Dr. W. B. Blackstone, who resides at Harrison and Wayne street, from his window saw three men of the hobo type in the street, and one of them picked a revolver from the pavement. Later Dr. Blackstone found five 32-caliber centerfire cartridges near where the weapon was picked up. The police are looking for the three hoboes, suspecting one may be the man who fled.

SAW DANGLING SKELETON.

Friends of an occupant of the North American building, on Clinton street, played a practical joke, early Tuesday morning on the man who has lately been much interested in spiritualistic seances. They procured a skeleton, suspended it in front of a window in his room, roused him from his slumber, rattled the bones of the articulated human frame and started something that caused Night Patrolman Collins a lot of trouble. THIEF REMAINED TO DINE.

A thief broke into the Frank L. Borntrager grocery at Washington and Harmer streets, Monday night, stole two boxes of cigars, $1 in cash and then stayed long enough to regale himself on two pies and a can of condensed milk. Detective Sergeant Pappert, who investigated, could get no clue. Entrance was effected by breaking a lock.

GIRL RESTORES POCKETBOOK.

After being closely questioned by Detectives Pappert and Spillner Monday evening, Shirley Sipples, aged 12, confessed that she had stolen from a handbag in the Menter store, West Berry street, a small pocketbook containing $11.50. She produced the pocketbook from beneath a bathtub in a room at the Randall hotel, where her mother is employed. The girl and her mother made a purchase in the Menter store and were waited on by Mrs. Ella Hartwell, a saleslady, to whom the purse belonged. The child will not be prosecuted.

Four Score of 114 Indicted Terre Haute Men Admit Participation in Alleged Conspiracy.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—Admitting that they had participated in the alleged conspiracy to corrupt the election of November 3, 1914, in Terre Haute, eighty men of 114 under arrest pleaded guilty before Judge A. B. Anderson in United States district court here today. Sentence was not passed.

Mayor Donn M. Roberts, of Terre Haute; Circuit Judge Eli H. Redman, Sheriff Dennis Shea, and others who were represented by Representative A. O. Stanley of Kentucky, filed demurers to the charges contained in the indictment, which was returned the day before last Christmas. The demurers will be argued January 20.

Edward Holler who until a few days ago was chief of police of Terre Haute, and John Nugent former night chief of police, were among those who pleaded guilty. With the exception of Holler and Nugent all of the city and county officials who were indicted filed demurers.

May Return Home.

After the 114 men had pleaded, Judge Anderson instructed that all those who had plead guilty could return to their homes and await the summons of United States District Attorney Frank C. Dailey. The same freedom was granted those who had pleaded not guilty and then court set January 20 as the date to hear arguments on the demurrers.

The Roberts Demurrer.

The demurrer, filed in behalf of Mayor Roberts, set forth (1) the court has no jurisdiction in the case; (2) the facts are not sufficient warrant to constitute a public offense; (3) facts are not sufficient to constitute a crime, misdemeanor; (4) fourth count indictment is duplicitious in that it attempts to state in a single count more than one separate and disinct offense; and (5) the indictment is vague.

With only one or two exceptions, each of the prisoners spoke plainly when called upon to plead. Daniel Alban, the second man called, stood and wetted his lips for several seconds and then only nodded his head affirmatively when the court asked if he were guilty. He was the first to plead guilty.

Alexander Acxelf, first called, pleaded not guilty.

Guessed He Was Guilty, Then.

Jesse Powell, attempted to give some details regarding his part in the alleged conspiracy. He said he was mixed up in the registrations but didn't know anything about the conspiracy.

"Did you register more than once?" asked Judge Anderson.

"Yes" admitted the prisoner. "I'll plead guilty to that but not to conspiracy."

After Judge Anderson had explained the meaning of the word conspiracy more fully, Powell said: "I guess I'm guilty then."

The defendants, all of whom had been released on bonds or personal recognizance were ushered into the court room and seated one at a time. The jury box had been removed and a further alterations were necessary to find room for all of the 114 prisoners said to have been the largest number ever arraigned at one time in a United States court.

Mayor Roberts was among the last to enter the court room. He took a seat besides his counsel, Rep. Stanley, and frequently consulted him. He also turned to lok at many of the defendants as they uttered their pleas of guilty. Judge Redman and his son had seats at the counsel table.

Sets a New Record.

Inasmuch as this is said to be the largest number of men arraigned at one time in a United States court and since the cases, if convictions are obtained will set a precedent giving the federal government jurisdiction over elections, the hearing today has attracted wide interest. Until the indictment in the Terre Haute case was returned Dec. 24 the record for indictments by a federal grand jury was said to have been held by the investigators who returned bills against the more than 50 dynamiters here in 1912.

According to local attorneys the Terre Haute investigation marks the first time the federal government has ever attempted to have jurisdiction over the election machinery. Frank Dailey, United States district attorney for Indiana, who personally worked up the case before the grand jury is working on the theory that since United States senator and a member of congress were elected in the election any efforts to manipulate the election illegally constituted fraud against the United States.

Many City Officials.

Included among the 114 prisoners arrested are ten city and county officials, among whom being the mayor, city judge, city comptroller, chief of police, two members of the city board of works, the sheriff and a judge of the circuit court. There are 14 city employes holding minor appointments, while the remainder of the group is composed of attorneys, saloonkeepers and so-called gamblers, but chiefly of men with "occupation unknown." Mr. Dailey says he has confessions from several of the men and expects a number to plead guilty and throw themselves on the mercy of the court. Others were expected to attack the indictment by demurrer when called for arraignment United States authorities since last November have been investigating the election in Terre Haute. Without warning a number of United States marshals on Nov. 18 swept down on Terre Haute and arrested 18 persons, who were wanted chiefly as witnesses before the federal grand jury.

Examine 400 Witnesses.

The grand jury is said to have examined more than 400 witnesses from Terre Haute and on December 24 just before it adjourned for the Christmas holidays returned a single indictment on which the 114 person were taken into custody, many of them on Christmas night. Mayor Roberts and the majority of the county and city officials, however, were not called in by United States Marshal Mark Storen until the day after Christmas. With the exception of Mayor Roberts all of the more important prisoners obtained bond and were released without being brought to the Indianapolis jail. Roberts, who, Marshal Storen said, made little effort to raise bond of $10,000 while in Terre Haute with 21 others was placed in the jail here Saturday night December 26. Roberts was released in the afternoon of December 28 after spending two days behind the bars. In time all of the men brought to the Indianapolis jail were released on bond.

In Four Counts.

The indictment is in four counts covering more than 100 typewritten pages. The first count charges violation of section 19 of the criminal code, the subject matter of which is conspiracy to injure persons in the exercise of the civil rights. It is set forth that this section was violated in three ways as follows:

1. Qualified voters were prevented from voting for candidates for the United States senate and for the house of representatives.

2. Qualified persons were prevented from serving on election boards.

3. Persons who had committed no offense, were placed in jail and deprived of their liberty without due process of law.

The second count based on section 37, which was used in the prosecution of the dynamite conspiracy cases in 1912 charges further acts in connection with the alleged conspiracy. The general charge is that the defendants conspired to defraud the United States.

Mr. Dailey said Rep. Ralph Moss of the Fifth Indiana district was not in any way connected with the alleged conspiracy.

Count three charges violation of the postal laws in that it is alleged the conspiracy was furthered through the mails; the final count alleges that money was obtained through the mails for a fund to be used in a scheme to commit false registration.

The federal grand jury has not yet completed its work. After the holiday recess, it spent about a week investigating election conditions in Indianapolis and then took another recess. When it meets again it is understood that election conditions in Evansville and possibly some of the other cities in the state will be considered.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Wilson said today he had no comment to make on the British reply to the American note, inasmuch as it was only a preliminary. He indicates he had not given the British communication full study as yet and plans to discuss it at length soon with Secretary Bryan.

In other quarters, however, where the communication has been gone over in detail by officers of the government, the view still prevails that while many concessions have been made, the British note leaves much still to be expected before American merchants can be apprised of what they can or cannot do with their cargoes.

Officials hope the second British note expected in a few days will lay down specific rules by which American exporters can be guided in the future.

THEY CAN FORM SHREWD GUESS.

President Hints to Callers of Immigration Bill eYto.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Wilson intimated today to callers that he will veto the immigration bill because of the literacy test. In advance of the final passage of the bill by congress he said he would not announce his intention, but added that his callers could form a shrewd guess of what his position will be.

EVANGELIST LYON DOES NOT ALWAYS REST ON THE DAY OF THE WEEK SET APART FOR RELAXATION.

That Dr. Milford H. Lyon does not always rest on the day set apart for recreation was indicated Monday when he was found dictating to Fred H. Rapp at the home of the evangelistic party, on Lake avenue. He was about as busy as he is when he is in active service before the public.

Neither does Loren Jones rest. He was hard at work transposing music at such times as he was not getting out of the way of Mrs. Jones, who was "tidying up" the room a bit.

SUFFRAGE NOW BEFORE HOUSE

Debate on Votes for Women Holds Interest at Washington.

SPECIAL RULE IS ADOPTED, 209 TO 31

Women Throng the Galleries to Await Vote at End of Six Hours Debate.

Washington, Jan. 12.—After an hour and a half of debate the house today adopted, 209 to 31, a special rule for considering the proposed constitutional amendment for women suffrage and then setled down to six hours actual debate before voting on whether to submit the resolution to the states for ratification.

The overwhelming vote in favor of the rule was by no means indicative of the sentiment of the resolution itself. Many who voted for the rule in order to bring the question up for ayes and no vote announced their intention of voting against the resolution itself. Anti-suffragists claimed the suffragists would not muster the necessary two-thirds vote; the suffragists did not predict more than that the house would register a majority in favor of their proposition.

Heavy Artillery in Action.

The debate on the rule had been spirited, bringing support and opposition from all parties. The real debate which began at 1 o'clock with six hours to run, brought out the heavy artillery of both sides, and promiseda vote some time after 7 o'clock this evening. To the applause and cheers of supporters of both sides of the question, packed in opposite galleries the house plunged into a debate fully as spectacular as that which attended the vote on the prohibition amendment some time ago. Representative Webb, chairman of the judiciary committee, led off the debate in opposition to the resolution. Debate on the special rule had been concluded by the floor leaders of the republican and democratic sides. Representative Mann supporting the amendment and Representative Underwood opposing it.

The Mondell resolution would submit to the states for their approval an amendment to the constitution inserting a new article as follows: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by a state on account of sex. Congress shall have power, by appropriate legislation, to enforce the provisions of this article."

Storm Fails to Check.

A driving rainstorm failed to discourage a record-breaking crowd. At 8 o'clock this morning the first arrivals went into the house galleries to await the beginning of the debate. An hour before the session opened practically all the unreserved seats for women were filled with suffragists and anti-suffragists.

PUTS FLOOD DAMAGE AT OVER $25,000,000

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—The Indiana state flood commission, which was appointed by Governor Ralston, April 20, 1914, has completed its work and submitted the findings and recommendations to the governor. The commission consists of one member from each congressional district.

The commission reported that the tangible losses from the flood of March 1913 were in excess of $25,000,000 and that the damages to county bridges and highways alone was over $3,000,000. "We find that agricultural lands," says the report, "are greatly damaged by the effects of floods. In nine counties along the east and west forks of white river Prof. Beebe, of Indiana university, reports a total damage of approximately one-half million dollars. In those counties nearly 8,000 acres of agricultural lands were denuded of soil and some 16,000 acres of river bottom covered with sand and silt. The estimate of the loss to the agricultural lands in this region approximates $250,000."

Montreal, Jan. 12.—A description of a naval battle off Grenada, British West Indies, is given in a letter received here today from an eye witness, who asserts that in his opinion the German cruiser Karlsruhe took part and was sunk.

The letter was made public by the Montreal Gazette and was received by a member of the Gazette staff from one of his friends at Grenada.

The letter was dated Grenada, Dec. 3, and the writer asserts that after the battle a life buoy came ashore marked "S. M. S. Karlsruhe," together with wreckage and barrels and food stuffs. He further writes that fishermen had brought the news that they had met dead bodies floating in the vicinity of the battle, numbers of candles marked "Kaiser light," boots with feet in them, helmets and other wreckage.

PROMISE REFORM TO SPEED UP JUSTICE

Washington, Jan. 12.—Non-partisan judicial reform to speed up justice and reduce the cost of procedure is promised by Senators before congress adjourns. The house has already agreed to the reform measures, and they have been favorably reported to the senate by the judiciary committee. Since President Wilson's speech at Indianapolis referring to judicial procedure in the United States as being behind every other civilized country democratic senators believe the bills will pass the senate without debate. The reforms aim to restrict the number of cases which may reach the supreme court with a view of enabling that court to keep abreast with current business, and to simplify procedure in the federal district courts and the circuit courts of appeals.

WOULD REPEAL LAW OF 1895

Under Which Members and Officers of Legislature Were Indicted.

SENATE TACKS IT TO APPROPRIATIONS

Total of 24 Bills Offered in Two Houses at Today's Session.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—The repeal of the law of 1895, under which thirteen members and officers of the 1913 session of the Indiana general assembly were indicted recently by the Marion county grand jury, is provided for in the amendments passed in the senate today to the house bill appropriating $115,000 to meet expenses of this session of the legislature.

The senate also favors amending the house bill to provide for the employment committees issuing certificates for payment of salaries and other expenses, while the house bill provides these duties evolve upon the presiding officer. The measure as amended carried by a vote of 42 to 6, republican members being the opponents and will be introduced in the house tomorrow.

Twenty-four Bills.

Twenty-four bills were introduced in the two houses today, including seventeen in the senate and seven in the house. Eugenic marriages will become the order in Indiana if a bill of Senator Neal, of Boone county, is passed. Other important measures concerned the repeal of the present registration law, the abolishment of the public drinking cup in public buildings and at places where public gatherings are held, requiring private funerals of all persons who die of contagious diseases and to practically quarantine hogs that have cholera.

By parliamentary procedure the resolution introduced last week on woman suffrage and deferred for consideration until this afternoon, was continued. The discussion of this resolution marked the only fight in the house. Representative Scott, of Indianapolis, author of it, declaring that the house would be acting discourteously to many women who he understood planned to attend this afternoon.

Must Face Suffrage Question.

Representative Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes, brought on the discussion by moving that, as the house was about to adjourn and as it had the suffrage question up as an order of business for this afternoon, that its consideration be advanced. Representative Scott jumped to his feet and voiced vigorous protest, which resulted in Mr. Niblack withdrawing his motion. A motion to adjourn was then started and a chorus of "ayes" greeted the question of Speaker Bedwell.

That the suffrage resolution either in the form of asking the legislature to go on record as requesting the national congress to take steps for a constitutional amendment for equal suffrage, or 7:30 p. m.—Song service lead by Mr. Jones.

8:00 p. m.—Sermon by Dr. Lyon.

After a day of rest Dr. Milford H. Lyon is again ready to resume his fight against sin in Fort Wayne. While the evangelist calls Monday his rest day, he was exceedingly busy answering letters and planning for the campaign to be waged here during the coming weeks.

Members of the Associated Christian Workers are planning for a big time Tuesday night, and will march to the tabernacle in a body headed by a drum corps. There will be a parade through the principal downtown streets. Badges for eight hundred have been printed. Those who will participate in the parade will meet at the Westminster church at 6:30 o'clock. The parade will start at 7 o'clock, the path to the tabernacle being lighted with red lights.

Dr. Lyon will speak Tuesday evening on "Rolling Away the Stone." The song service under the direction of Loren G. Jones will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Something About the Evangelist.

Much Interest Aroused.

There is naturally much interest in the man capable of arousing the religious interest that Dr. Lyon has in Fort Wayne. He was born near Waukon, Allamakee county, Iowa, on Feb. 10, 1868, the youngest of thirteen children. His boyhood days were spent on a farm, walking two miles to attend the village school.

Studied Law.

He completed the high school course at the age of 13 and soon after moved with his parents to Humboldt, in the northwestern part of Iowa, where he spent a year in a lawyer's office, preparing a set of county abstract books. His father having engaged in the hardware business, young Lyon spent more than four years clerking in the store; working at the bench in the tin shop, and during the last two years of this time had special charge of the collection of the accounts and the purchase of goods. During these years, while he was out of school, young Milford had an ambition to return to his studies, but the way did not open up until the autumn of 1887, when, his father having sold the store, he started to Iowa City and entered the academy. Doing two years' work in one, he completed the academic course the following June, and the next fall entered the state univers-

WAR'S GRIP HOLDS FAST

Desperate Fighting Fails to Change Alignment of Mighty Foes.

EACH IS RUSHING IN NEW THOUSANDS

Present Battles Preliminary to Vaster Operations in the Spring.

London, Jan. 12.—The great armies battling in the eastern and western arenas of the war by artillery exchanges, sapping operations and trench attacks, continue to be aligned today much as they were on the first of January. Everywhere the disposition seems to be to await the coming of spring when, with fresh armies thrown into the field events promise to move more quickly.

Great Britain is now sending thousands of men to France every week, and according to today's report from Berlin, Germany, aware of this, is making great military preparations for a counter movement. All the reserves are being called to the colors, it is declared here, and the further statement is made that the German generals are gathering up the reins to assume active direction of all the campaigns, that is to say the Austro-Hungarian fight against Servia and Russia and the Turkish campaign against Russia and Great Britain.

Germany still claims that she is making slow progress toward Warsaw. There have been published in London, however, reports that these operations are merely movements to shield a German retreat to the Silesian frontier. British military observers do not credit this idea, believing that Gen. von Hindenburg has further offensive strength, but at the same time they draw attention to the fact that the Russians must feel confident of Warsaw's safety else they would not continue to hurl so many troops at Hungary through Bukowina.

In the western arena the points of greatest interest are in the center near Soissons and on the French right in Alsace. Here the fighting continues while the rest of the line is virtually inactive.

BERLIN REPORTS VICTORIES.

Say French Attacks Wither Away Before German Fire.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—(By Wireless to London.)—The German official statement issued in Berlin today says:

"In the western theater insignificant engagements are taking place south of the canal of La Bassee, but so far without result.

"French troops last night made an attack on our positions to the south of Cernay, but they were repulsed with heavy losses. Early this morning the battle was resumed in this district.

"A French attack which started yesterday afternoon in the region of Perthes withered away before our fire, the enemy suffering very heavy losses.

Four distinct battles which have developed in France and Alsace are being carried on vigorously, but without marked advantage for either side. Of greatest immediate consequence is the fighting near Perthes, which involves possession of important railroad and probably a considerable section of the fortified battle line. In this district the French attempted further attacks, but were beaten back with heavy losses, the German official statement today asserts, near Soissons, near the Aisne, the French statement says. German attempts to capture lost positions were repulsed and more trenches were seized by the allies.

In the Argonne, where fighting has been more continuous and stubborn since the early weeks of the war than almost anywhere else, the Germans are on the offensive, and claims to have captured a French vantage point.

The fourth battle in Alsace is less active than was the case before the reinforced Germans checked the French advance. The Berlin war office asserts that a French attack, south of Sennheim, was defeated and that the attackers suffered losses.

Desultory fighting continues in Poland and the German statement tells of slow progress on the part of the army, which is attempting to advance on Warsaw from the west.

According to a Petrograd dispatch the German small cruiser, Bremen, has been damaged badly by striking a mine. Official denial is made in Petrograd of the report that Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, brother-in-law of Emperor Nicholas, was killed in the fighting in Persia.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

KING DIGS WITH PICK AND SHOVEL

London, Jan. 12.—"King Albert spent several hours Sunday with a pick and shovel, digging trenches like a common soldier," writes a Belgian soldier to his family. "It happened in this way: While inspecting with some staff officers the king saw a group of us digging, looking very tired. He inquired how long we had been working. Being told he sent us away for a rest while he proposed to his staff that he and they take our prices."

CARRANZA TROOPS EVACUATE MONTEREY

Washington, Jan. 12.—Monterey has been evacuated by practically all the Carranza troops who have gone to Matamoras, according to consular dispatches received today by the state department.

KISSES BOUND GUARD BEFORE HE ESCAPES

Virginia Police on Watch for Four Convicts in Dash for Liberty.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 12.—Police of several Virginia cities today are on the watch for four convicts who escaped from the Virginia state penitentiary here late last night after overpowering and binding a prison guard, an armed watchman and a shop foreman. The escaped men are Al Burton and Siler Atkins, serving long sentences for second degree murder, and H. L. Hamilton and E. B. Hanley, serving nine and eight years, respectively, for forgery and robbery.

Information gathered by prison officials led them to believe the men are making their way to Newport News in an effort to board a cattle ship for Europe.

The escape was discovered by Wm. L. Bailey, a trusty, whose duties required his presence in the vicinity of the overall factory, where the four men were working. Failure of the night watchman to appear at the usual time prompted Bailey to make an investigation which disclosed the three helpless prison employes, laying side by side on the floor of the factory workshop.

According to the story told by the guard, the four men caught him unawares and overpowered and bound him. Appropriating his two revolvers, they waited for the night watchman to make his rounds. A pistol pointed at the latter's heart caused a prompt surrender. He was placed beside the guard. The capture of the unarmed shop foreman, who returned to the shop at this moment, was effected with ease, and the three helpless men then were forced to watch the prisoners prepare to depart.

The prison garments quickly gave way to shirts and overalls. A rope was made of the cloth which the convicts had been working. This was fastened to an iron stanchion and dropped through a window to the ground, fifty feet below. Then after making the three captives comfortable by placing improvised pillows under their heads the convicts rifled their pockets and requisitioned their hats.

Hamilton, known as "the boy forger," stooped and kissed the guard. "Bye, bye, old sport, good luck," he said.

The four then slipped through the window and made their way hand over hand to the ground.

WAS NOT THINKING OF HIS CANDIDACY

President Explains Remark in Indianapolis Address.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Wilson declared today that he was not thinking of announcing his candidacy for 1916 when he made the statement in his Indianapolis speech recently that the people of the United States might have a chance to judge of his acts.

His utterance was interpreted by the audience and by others at the time as a hint that he might be a candidate for renomination. The president explained to callers today that what he had in mind was that future generations would pass upon his acts as president.

The president refused today absolutely to discuss the question of being a candidate. Efforts were made to get an expression of opinion from him on the one term plank of the Baltimore platform, but Mr. Wilson shook his head and refused to answer questions. He said that he could not talk about himself.

ALLIANCE FAVORS THE VOLLMER BILL

A resolution to be forwarded to Congressman Cyrus Cline asking him to use his influence in support of the Vollmer bill, prohibiting the export from the United States of arms, ammunition and other implements of warfare to belligerent countries in times of war, was passed Monday evening at the regular quarterly meeting of the Fort Wayne German alliance. Congressman Cline is a member of the committee on foreign relations.

Individual letters have been sent to Mr. Cline and Senators Kern and Shively.

The alliance voted to support the two lectures to be given next week by Prof. Kuehnemann, of the Breslau university at the St. Paul's auditorium. Prof. Kuehnemann, who is one of the German exchange professors, is now making a tour of the United States. On Thursday evening, January 21, he will deliver a lecture in German and on the following evening will speak in English on the topic, "German Militarism." The proceeds will go to the German Red Cross.

Delegates to the alliance were urged to boost the German play, "Lieb Vaterland" to be given at the Majestic theater on February 3, by the Irving Place Theater company, of New York.

Paul Richter was elected treasurer of the alliance to fill the vacancy caused as the result of the death of the late Gustave Schubert.

STEAMER WAS AFIRE IN TERRIFIC GALE

New York, Jan. 12.—The Anchor line steamer Perugia, in today from Mediterranean ports, had a narrow escape from serious injury by fire when west of the Azores. Smoke was discovered among bales of hemp in number 3 hold and when the hatches were opened a black cloud rolled up from the smoldering cargo. A gale was blowing at the time. The crew fought the fire by hauling out as much of the hemp as possible and flooding the hold. For a time the fire seemed to be spreading and the captain turned the ship back on its course, seeking to reach the Azores. A wireless message was sent reporting the fire. After a fight of four hours, however, the blaze was brought under control. The captain again changed the direction of the ship and proceeded on his way west.

MRS. ROGERS IS TOLD OF HOMICIDE CHARGE

New York, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Ida Sniffen Rogers, who poisoned her two babies, was told today in the hospital, where she is recovering from a dose of poison that she administered to herself, that District Attorney Martin, of the Bronx, had preferred a charge of homicide against her and had asked the grand jury to indict her.

The news was broken by her lawyer, Abraham Levi, who had planned to confer with her, but Mrs. Rogers was so overcome that Mr. Levi was obliged to leave her in the care of nurses. While she had feared that she might have to face such a charge, she had been led to believe, it was said, that she would escape with a charge of attempted suicide.

The grand jury heard more witnesses in the case today.

Amsterdam, Jan. 12.—There has been received here from Berlin an official dispatch which repudiates all the accusations against the troops of Germany made in the report of a French committee which investigated certain alleged atrocities. This report, given out to the public January 7, by the French cabinet, charged the Germans with many outrages. The dispatch from Berlin says:

"This French statement is an unbroken series of slanders with no other intention than to create hatred against the German people."

Continuing, it complains that the French report is lacking in detail and it declares that German military commanders always have maintained discipline among their troops and observed all the rules of warfare. In conclusion this dispatch promises that specific charges will be investigated and the results made public.

URGES CHANGE IN LICENSING SYSTEM

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 12.—Decentralization of the taxing and saloon licensing systems and placing the issuance of saloon licenses in the hands of county officials already elected, instead of appointing boards, was recommended by Governor Willis in his first message to the general assembly today. He suggested a number of methods of effecting economy. He recommended that the maximum death award under workmen's compensation be increased, that a system of registering and voting by mail be established and that the anti-student voting law be repealed.

DISQUIET IN BALKANS SPREADS RAPIDLY

London, Jan. 12.—In view of the predicted entrance into the war of Roumania and perhaps Italy, unusual interest attaches to dispatches indicating that disquiet in the Balkins is spreading. Italy may be called upon soon to resort to force of arms in Albania. The insurgents are said to be bringing up guns to direct against Durazzo, the port recently occupied by Italian forces.

Servia's aspirations have expanded since her victory over the Austrian army and according to a Rome dispatch she now insists that, in the event of victory for the allies, she must receive Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia. Italy has sent troops to Italian islands in the Aegean archipelago, which she is fortifying. Roumania is to begin the mobilization of her army late this month.

Although the Austro-German forces in Poland apparently have given up for the time a general offensive movement, fighting of a local character continues.

Vienna reports that an attempt of the Russians to cross the lower Nida, in southern Poland, was repulsed. The attack apparently means that the Russians have determined on another move on Cracow, the Galician stronghold.

Army headquarters at Petrograd states that German attacks on the Russian positions along the Vistula were beaten back. A minor victory over the Turkish forces in the Caucasus also is announced.

ity. During the succeeding four years he earned his entire expenses by teaching mathematics in the academy and working as traveling salesman during the summer season, selling goods for an Iowa City factory.

Did Not Waste Time:

It is evident that he did not waste much time in those years, for he ranked first in scholarship in his class of fifty for the entire course. And he also spent much time in extra literary work, engaging in the university oratorical contest, where he won first place, and then in the state oratorical contest he won first honors over the prize contestants from fourteen other colleges. And then, in the interstate contest at Lincoln, Neb., he received the highest marks ever given, being graded first by three judges, and second by a fourth judge. This was the same oratorical association in which Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, and ex-Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, won highest honors a few years earlier.

Held in High Esteem.

It is evident that Dr. Lyon held the esteem and confidence of his college mates for during his senior year he was given the three highest university honors, the presidency of the leading literary society, the presidency of the Republican club and was also elected president of the university Y. M. C. A.

Before his graduation he was elected as president of Ellsworth college, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, and entered upon his duties immediately upon finishing his university course. Here he remained for two years, directing the financial and executive management of the school, besides teaching Latin and literature.

Starts as Unitarian.

Mr. Lyon had entered the university as a Unitarian, although reared in a Christian home, he had drifted into what he termed liberal thought, and for the first two years in college had been entirely indifferent to orthodox Christianity. It was during the visit of Mr. S. M. Sanford, of Boston, who for ten years worked among the students of American colleges, that Lyon came out into a definite faith in Christ and made a public confession of his belief. During the remainder of his college course he was active along religious lines, being chosen by the state Y. M. C. A. as a member of the state deputation, and by the international Y. M. C. A. to deliver the address at their national convention in Kansas City for the colleges of America.

Mr. Lyon had entered college with the intention of studying for the law and going into politics, and having turned from this to teaching he felt more and more impressed with the needs and importance of the gospel ministry. At the close of his second year as college president he resigned his position to accept a call to the pastorate of the First Congregational church of Harvey, Ill. After a year and a half here he accepted the pastorate of the Bethel church at Windsor Park, Chicago. During this pastorate the church membership was nearly doubled and a new building was erected.

Feeling the great need of evangelistic work all over the land Dr. Lyon decided to resign from his pastorate and enter what seemed to him a broader field of Christian endeavor. It would naturally seem a very perilous venture to resign from a successful pulpit and a good salary to start out, not knowing where, without any assurance of financial support for himself and family. Yet this is what Mr. Lyon did and it cannot help but make him smile when people say he entered evangelism for the money there was in it. Naturally he had to start in a small way, at first in single church meetings. But from that beginning his work has constantly grown. During the past fifteen years he has spoken more than seven thousand times in twenty-four states and has never missed a service on account of ill health. As a result of his work there have been at least a hundred thousand conversions.

Having been a pastor Dr. Lyon naturally looks at evangelism from the standpoint of the men who are to remain on the field after the evangelist has left.

Many Invitations Received.

During the past year he has received more than twenty invitations from Indiana cities to conduct union campaigns. Four years ago the degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon Dr. Lyon by Wheaton college "in honor," said the resolution of the board of trustees, "for his achievements in the Kingdom of God." He is the author of two books, the first of which, The Leadership of Jesus, has gone into the seventh edition, The later book, For the Life That Now Is, has reached the third edition. His ministry has centered especially about the supreme truth of the Kingship of Christ. It was at his suggestion that the publishers of the song book used in the meetings called the new book by the name which is the heart of Dr. Lyon's ministry, "Make Christ King." For fifteen years Dr. Lyon lived at Wheaton, Ill., but has recently built a home, "Faerholm," at Winona Lake, Ind.

In the autumn, after his graduation from the university, he married a college friend, Miss Effie Forest, of Miles, Iowa. They have five children, Merle Paul, the eldest, is a senior at Oberlin college. Helen is a member of the sophomore class at Oberlin. Arthur Eugene is a junior at Winona academy. The two younger children, Margaret, thirteen years old, and Ruth, seven years, are in the Winona public schools.

LOGANSPORT LADY WENT TO DENVER

Mrs. Etta Julian, of 2301 High Street,

Took a Trip to Colorado for

Her Asthma.

Mrs. Etta Julian, a well known resident of Logansport, Indiana, took a trip to points in Colorado in an endeavor to get relief from her asthma, which had gotten so bad that she could hardly live. She had been unable to lie in bed for six months and suffered untold agony. Her trip and expenses was of no avail for she came back in as bad condition as she was when she left for the west.

When the Fort Wayne Inter-State Medical Institute was opened at 205 West Berry street, she went to the physician in charge and he took her case for treatment. Mrs. Julian writes the following letter for publication:

Logansport, Ind., Dec. 15, 1914.

Inter-State Doctors:

As you wanted me to write you a letter telling you about myself I will do so. I have suffered with the asthma 25 years. I called on your specialist just three weeks ago, he gave me a thorough scientific examination and told me he could give me relief.

I have been six months at a time so I could not lie in bed. I would cough and spit enormous quantities of phlegm and there would be times I would choke and turn blue in the face and what little breath I did get would [illegible] me.

I have taken all kinds of medicine that I could hear of and doctored with many doctors with no results. The medicine would make me sick and the doctor would give me morphine.

I went to Denver and Grand Junction, Colorado, but on return was as bad or worse than before. I have had the asthma the whole year through for the last 25 years.

I came three weeks ago and within a week began to notice improvement and now I am the best I have been for years. Any one wishing to know about my case can call on me at my home, 2301 High street, and I will gladly tell them what you have done for me.

MRS. ETTA JULIAN.

The above letter is only one of the many which are received daily by the Inter-State Doctors from grateful patients who feel that they owe their lives and happiness to the skill and attention of these master medical specialists.

SHE HAS "DEMURE LITTLE WAY," BUT SPIRIT OF YANKEE INDEPENDENCE.

Will London have to elect another "successor to Edna May"? It probably will, for Ferne Rogers, American musical comedy star, recently crowned "Edna May the second," has lost cast with the Britishers and incidentally lost her job at the Drury Lane theater because she said, right out loud where everyone could hear her, "I like the Germans. I hope they will win, and I'm sure they will win."

Miss Rogers' beauty has made her famous on two continents, but it was "the demure little way she had" that captivated London.

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PIMPLES SPREAD ALL OVER HEAD

"3508 N. Hamilton Ave., Chicago, Ill.—"My scalp trouble began on the lower part of my head with severe itching and burning, forming into lumps or pimples which spread all over my head. These would itch something terrible, getting red and sore and after some time they got hard. My trouble always seemed to be worse. Nights when I would take down my hair and comb it the scales were so thick that I would have nothing but scales in my comb.

"I had had the trouble six months when I heard about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. The itching had kept me awake at night but when I used the sample I had better rest. I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and bar of Cuticura Soap and used them every night and morning for four weeks. My head was all healed and I would never wash my head now with anything else but Cuticura Soap." (Signed) Miss Helen Beyer, July 30, 1914.

Chrystal Herne is a bride and a most unhappy one, but "Polygamy," not plain matrimony, is the cause of her discontent.

When Miss Herne became the bride of Henry Pollard, New York newspaperman, she expected to take a six months' honeymoon vacation. But before her wedding gifts were unpacked she was called upon to play an important role in the new drama, "Polygamy." The play couldn't be postponed, so the honeymoon was set back a season, much to the displeasure of the bride.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Psalms 12:1-8.

1 Help, Lord; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour; with flattering lips, and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things;

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own; who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lord; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the Lord are pure words, as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O Lord, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever;

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

On the First Roll Call.

The hope has been expressed that the present Indiana legislature would not burden the state statute books with a mass of new and unnecessary laws, but that, rather, it would devote its time to enacting only actually needed legislation and then quit; that quality and not quantity would be made the measure of its public service. It is much too early, of course, to either begin counting chickens or making predictions, but the start is auspicious. On the first roll call of the session Monday afternoon the house and senate each received eight bills—the smallest number of measures offered on the first roll call in many years. The more important of these proposals were:

A measure to repeal the registration law.

A resolution holding in contempt any person who attempts to lobby for a measure on the floor of the house when the house is in session.

A bill requiring circuit court judges to appoint expert accountants to go over the books of each county official at the expiration of the term of office.

A bill to abolish capital punishment in Indiana and to substitute life imprisonment for the electric chair.

The repeal of the registration law is fathered by Representative Fred L. Feick, of Garrett, who also offered the resolution against lobbying on the floor of the house. Senator Otis L. Ballou, of Lagrange, is sponsor for the bill providing county financial aid for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines and their widows, and the measure was the first one to be introduced in the asembly at the present session. Behind the bill to do away with the electric chair in this state is Senator C. A. McCormick, of North Judson, who was prominent during the recent meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association in Fort Wayne.

Encouraging as is the small number of bills presented as the session opens, it of course does not follow that the ratio will be maintained or that the present legislature will be able to escape about the usual complement of freak measures that we have come to expect and to regard as a perfectly normal condition of legislative sessions. Legislatures are always legislatures, and they are importuned by about the same number of persons with freak bills and impossible suggestions session after session. Often the member is forced to sheer self-defense to burden the calendar with measures with which he is not in sympathy because he cannot otherwise escape the constituent back home, and the constituent back home should not be allowed to escape responsibility for this condition. Indiana does not need so many pounds of addition to its statute books so much as it needs a smaller number of really important measures and an early adjournment of the legislature.

The December report of the Associated Charities shows that demands for relief in Fort Wayne were greater than in any previous month during the past fifteen years, but it shows also that there was a splendid response to appeals for assistance from deserving sources. Both organizations and individuals in Fort Wayne have been finely generous and kindly in aiding the unfortunate, and while there has doubtless been privation and suffering that has not been reached, the sum total of accomplished good in this direction is by no means a small one. It is the sort of service, too, that blesses him who gives as well as him who receives.

The very able and very estimable Frank B. Willis has just been inaugurated as governor of Ohio, and the state returns to republican rule after nine years. Without going to the length of squarely saying as much we gather from manifestations of republican rejoicing the fact that our neighbors on the east have a strong conviction that the mellenium is just around the bend and coming fast.

Cole Blease, who will in a few days retire as governor of South Carolina, has during his term of office freed a total of 3,600 convicts from the state penal institutions and entirely wiped out the state militia. Apparently Mr. Blease is not particular regarding his place on the imperishable roll of fame, but he is plainly determined to get on the list by some hook or crook.

Lyon's Publicity Man is a Hustler

REV. RAY UPSON.

The smallest individual in the Lyon party, and yet he is big in usefulness and efficiency. This in a single sentence describes Ray G. Upson, Rev. Ray G. Upson it used to be for Mr. Upton is an ordained minister in the United Brethren church. Mr. Upson is the publicity man of the Dr. Lyon party and he knows the publicity game, at least the religious publicity game, from start to finish.

Upson took along the scribe after he got to town last week, made the rounds of the newspapers and the printing establishments, and soon had the wheels of the advertising end of the Lyon machine running as smoothly and easily as if he had lived in Fort Wayne all his life. And the beauty of all his work is that it is done so quietly and apparently with such little effort on Upson's part, that after he is through with any given job, you wonder how it all happened.

Mr. Upson not alone advertises the meeting but he assists in the shop and factory work. His voice is heard as a member of the quartet, and in solo work in the noonday meetings.

Upson knows the evangelistic game, and has been with some of the leading companies of the country. When "Pit" as he is familiarly called by some of the male members of the party is away, acting as advance representative, Mr. Upson takes his place as the business manager of the party. The local newspaper men all say "Upson's all right."

J. M. Kuhns was elected president of the Mizpah temple patrol, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at the regular meeting at the home, 227 West Main street, Monday evening. The other officers are: Dr. J. W. Autenreith, vice president; Amos Richey, secretary, and Frank Rouzer, treasurer.

Edgar H. Kilbourne was named as captain of the patrol with the following aides: Harry Jones, first lieutenant; Robert B. Garmire, second lieutenant; Samuel Newell, first sergeant; Robert Klaehn, second sergeant.

Announcement was made by Byron H. Somers, illustrious potentate, that a special ladies' night would be held at the temple on January 29. There will be a special entertainment, a patrol drill, dancing, cards and refreshments.

Great preparation are being made for the ceremonial to be held the latter part of February. Mr. Somers has promised "something extra," but what that "something extra" will be is yet a secret.

WHERE NEIGHBORS ARE TO BE FOUND.

(Kansas City Star.)

Out in the country near Blue Springs, in Jackson county, recently, a farmer lost his house by fire. The sympathetic village council voted $50, "just to help him through," as they say in the country.

The news report of the incident does not tell, but it is practically certain that the neighbors also took the members of the family of that farmer and entertained them in the homes until they could get "on their feet again," and find a new home. And even then, if the new home is anywhere in that neighborhood, the neighbor women will gather and help the farmer's wife get the new place 'straightened up."

It is the fine neighborly spirit of helpfulness that makes the country such a wholesome place for living.

Come misfortune, come sickness, come death—there is never lacking in the country places the spirit to "bear ye one another's burdens."

Recently in the big city—not far from Kansas City, either—the fire department was called to a home. When the firemen left, there remained the charred shell of a house and a few pieces of furniture that had been carried out by the family. A few curious persons stood in the street to watch the firemen. Only the neighbors of the very next door showed actual sympathy. The insurance adjuster and the newspaper reporter were the most inquisitive persons present as to the loss on the property; the financial condition of the unfortunate or the future plans of the sufferers.

"Have you any near neighbors?" a country woman was asked recently.

"Oh, yes," was the reply. "Several of them. The nearest ones live only a mile away."

A mile in the country, when it comes to the display of the kindly, helpful sentiment that makes life worth living, covers no such vast distance as a block in the city, where strangers dwell to themselves in seclusion.

In the city every sentiment of this neighborly spirit is restrained for fear it will be regarded as "meddling in the affairs of strangers." Out in the country, heaven be praised, there is no such fear of "meddling," and hardly such a word as "stranger," as it relates to anyone living within a radius of several miles around.

Heavy Demands Made on Associated Charities During December.

During the month of December, the applications at the Associated Charities greatly exceeded those of any corresponding month for a period of at least fifteen years last past, the total number having been 130, of which 50 had never before applied there for aid. The applications represented a total of 213 adults and 286 children; of these 70 were resident families having children, 13 resident families without children, 12 men and 9 women residents; the non-residents were 13 men, 3 women and one family.

Investigations were made in 70 cases; 14 women were given tickets to the work room, and 11 worked. Assistance were rendered in 109 cases, 21 having been found not in need.

Co-operating in relief were the Fort Wayne Relief union, the Visiting Nurse league, Township trustees, the Elks, Lakeside Aid society, Willing Workers Aid society, te Associated Christian workers, Fidelity and Opportunity Circles of King's Daughters, churches, relatives, Epworth league of First M. E. church and private persons.

One case each were referred to the Board of Children's Guardians and charities organization in another city, and three to trustees. Investigations were made and advice given in 4 cases, asked by private persons. Temporary employment was secured once and permanent employment for two persons. Calls made by general secretary, 133; 'phone calls at office, 310; personal calls at office 228. Total value of assistance rendered exclusive of personal services 653.88 this does not include the value of Christmas dinners, supplies and cheer, given to 59 families, whose names were furnished to lodges, churches, Sunday School classes and private persons.

Much of the work of relief was made possible through cash donations received from the employes of the Wayne Knitting mills, the Isaac Knapp Dental Coterie and private persons; several of these contributions came anonymously. The action of the donors was greatly appreciated.

During the latter part of the month, an incident occurred, which showed the willingness and readiness of the people to assist when having knowledge of cases in real need. A woman with four small children deserted by her husband, having no means whatever, not even anything with which to ersure necessary food, was left dependent. It was learned she had a sister in the far west, who might make a home for her and her children. The Epworth League of the First M. E. church voluntarily assumed to provide food and room until this sister could be communicated with. In the course of time, word was received that the sister would gladly receive the woman in her own home if she were sent there. During a period of two weeks, the family was completely fitted out with clothing and other necessaries for the trip. The experiences connected with this case before she finally reached her home in the west, considerably exceeded $100.00. In addition to the relief already assumed by the Epworth league, it also provided one half the cash fare amounting to $30.00; others beside our own organization who assisted in this special case were the Fidelity and Opportunity Circles of the King's Daughters, the Relief union, the trustees of Wayne township, Patterson-Fletcher Co., C. J. Welker, and a number of private individuals.

What The Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Miss Hulda Hanker, of S. M. Foster's waist manufactory, is confined to her home by a sprained ankle.

Rob Harding, of the main office of the Jenney, is acting as shipping clerk during the absence of Harry Templar, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mergentheim entertained Rev. Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, the noted Chicago rabbi, during his stay in Fort Wayne.

Joseph P. Morgan, the Pennsylvania baggageman, has gone to Newark, N. J., in response to word that his father is dangerously ill.

Councilman George W. Ely found a silver watch near the corner of Calhoun and Main streets yesterday and left it at the Hamilton National bank.

Capt. Billy Meyer, a patron of field sports, has received a letter asking if Fort Wayne cares to go into the Indiana-Illinois-Iowa baseball league.

The following directors have been elected by the recently organized Fort Wayne Land and Improvement company: G. W. Pixley, P. A. Randall, J. W. Wilding, D. N. Foster, Joe W. Bell, H. C. Hanna, A. D. Cressler, G. F. Felts, A. Rothschild, W. E. Mossman, J. J. Lang, Otto Klinkenberg, R. L. Romy, Chas. McCulloch, C. A. Wilding and John Dreibelbiss. Officers will not be elected until after incorporation of the company.

"La grippe," otherwise the Russian influenza, that for several weeks has been ravaging the east, has struck Fort Wayne, and many scores have been attacked. Among those reported ill of the scourge are George Jacobs, Mrs. A. D. Cressler, Charles D. Tillo, Miss Grace Woodward, Mrs. Henry C. Paul, Stephen D. Bond, Editor N. R. Leonard, Miss Anna Philley, C. H. Walton, August M. Schmidt, Mrs. James Merriweather, Charles Guild, John A. Thieme, John C. Peters, Tony Trentman, Judge John Morris, Hon. P. S. O'Rourke, Hon. R. C. Bell, Theodore Frank, Sid G. Throckmorton, John T. Dougall, city editor of the News, and Misses Belle Clark and Lou Strong, teachers in the Clay school.

How to Cure a Lagrippe Cough.

"Coughs that hang on" demand treatment. Stop and think! Reason and common sense tell you that it is folly to "grin and bear it." Those racking lagrippe coughs that wrench the body and cause soreness and pains in the lungs yield more quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar than to any other treatment. Forty years' record of successes proves this. For coughs, colds, croup and other distressing ailments of throat, chest, lungs, larynx and bronchial tubes, you can find nothing that will compare with this reliable remedy. Dreier Drug Co.—Adv.

For the use of naturalists there has been invented a cane containing a compass, double lens, thermometer, sand glass and bottle to hold flowers or insects.

ANTWERP NEWS.

Antwerp, O., Jan. 12.—Julius Badelmeier, of Ada, O., was an over the Sabbath visitor at this place, the guest of friends.

The skating on the river was excellent Sunday, and the hockey players were out in large numbers. The play was fast and furious at times, no one was killed outright, but the punishment was "a plenty" and was handed around quite promiscuously, if you don't believe it just take a squint at A. J. Shilb's "bugle" which is somewhat disfigured, caused by a player in his excitement taking a whack at it instead of the ball.

J. H. Adcock, of the firm of Adcock & Co., was taken quite seriously ill Saturday evening at the store, and had to be taken to his home in a conveyance, his affliction being acute indigestion. Prompt medical attention soon placed him in a comfortable condition.

The Antwerp Citizens band contemplate giving another of their popular concerts, the date being Friday evening Feb. 12.

SOCIETY

Over forty ladies enjoyed a delightfully informal time at the home of Mrs. Hugh G. Keegan, yesterday. Mrs. Keegan invited friends of her own and of Mrs. E. Ralph Yarnelle, to a game of auction and to meet Mrs. Yarnelle who is here from Easton, Pa., for a visit. There were many lovely roses of different colors in the rooms and the luncheon at the close of the card game was another delight. At the home of Mrs. W. A. Nichols this afternoon Mrs. S. E. Muholland assisted in entertaining a very small company of neighbors to meet Mrs. Yarnelle again. Mrs. Fred B. Shoaff is to be another hostess for the same visitor on Wednesday.

At the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Freiburger on Monday, covers were laid for twenty-five for the family dinner served at the English tearoom. Many beautiful flowers graced the dinner table, the decorations being a very attractive feature of the dinner and also at the residence where in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Freiburger met their friends in a most informal manner.

Woman's League Meeting.

The exhibit of arts and crafts work at the public library on Saturday afternoon was a large and beautiful one and many examples of basketry, needlework and china were shown besides hammered things, work in leather, tatting, crocheting and so on, which were a credit to the city. This display only lasted the one afternoon and that fact was a disappointment to the visitors at the meeting which was under the auspices of the domestic science department of the Woman's league and to many who could not be present. Mrs. Guldlin, chairman, had arranged a program which in itself was enough to take up the afternoon and as it was an especially practical and interesting one, there was little time left to look over the exhibit. Such an exhibit might well be shown oftener, instead of once a year, and it could be kept open for a week and therefore be an incentive and an education in the very lines of endeavor this particular department of the Woman's league is aiming to promote. The idea is one of the best the league has brought to the front. Mrs. Guldlin was assisted in the excellent program by Mrs. Edson, Mrs. Mabel Bradley, Miss Katherine Brown and Mrs. Lee Ninde.

Celebrates Anniversary.

Mrs. Mary Gerke, of Goeglein, who is the widow of the late J. F., celebrated the eightieth anniversary of her birth on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hannah Bartels, of 311 West Lewis street. About fifty guests, all of whom were relatives, participated in the pleasures of the gathering and partook of an abundant dinner served at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Gerke was presented with many gifts appropriate for her years and one of special beauty was a big basket of eighty pink roses graced the center of the dinner table. The children of Mrs. Gerke are: Henry Gerke, of Portland, Ore., Mrs Christ Koester, Mrs. Adolph Burg, Fred Gerke, Mrs. Emil Burg, Mrs. Bartels and Miss Clara Gerke. There are thirty grandchildren and six great grandchildren in the family. A part of the time Mrs. Gerke lives on the Gerke farm in St. Joe township. She was born in Hanover, Germany. Formerly Mrs. Gerke was a member of the congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran church but since the building of St. Peter's church at Goeglein attends there most of the time.

Two Interesting Meetings Will Be Held Wednesday, February 17.

An interesting meeting of presidents of the parent-teacher clubs of the city was held in the Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. H. Spalding, president of the Mothers' club, called the meeting and presided. Plans were made for the observance of child welfare week, which will be held all over the country the week of February 17. In Fort Wayne there will be two meetings, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. Mrs. Turner, of the Jefferson parent-teacher club; Mrs. Kline, of the James H. Smart club, and Mrs. Smith, of the Nebraska club, were appointed to make arrangements for entertainment. Mrs. Walter Burns, of the Hanna parent-teacher club is to see about the place for the evening meeting. The afternoon meeting will be held in the Y. W. C. A., and aside from a program and a speaker from Chicago to make the principal address, there will be a social hour and refreshments will be served. Children from the public school kindergartens are to take part and pupils to make a chorus to sing from the schools are to assist on the program, probably in the evening. Every parent-teacher club in the city, except the Lakeside Normal, was present at the meeting yesterday and much enthusiasm was manifested.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Anna Pavlowa Tonight.

Mlle. Anna Pavlowa, who, with her big organization of Russian choregraphic artists and her own symphony orchestra, will be the season's artistic feature here tonight, has received more royal favors from the crowned heads of Europe than perhaps any other living artist. She has been decorated six different times by the czar of Russia and is also the possessor of a large estate worthy a king's ransom through royal largess. Just prior to the outbreak of the European hostilities Pavlowa appeared in Berlin at the request of Kaiser Wilhelm. Following her performance Pavlowa was summoned to the royal box. It was current history at the time that when Pavlowa stained the kaiser's glove with the rouge from her lips she was frightened, thinking that the emperor had been hurt. But the dancer's fears were quickly laughed away by the royal party. The day following Pavlowa received from the kaiser a handsome jeweled handbag.

Concerning "Potash and Perlmutter."

"There is nothing mean about Abe, nothing cringing about Mawruss. This is the good quality of the play from the Jewish point of view, and there is no reason to be ashamed in any way of this presentation of the business and home character of these very human personalities. During its long run in New York city "Potash and Perlmutter" was visited by countless societies, both Jewish and gentiles, and representing every section of the United States. Its appeal is universal and in sending it to the Majestic on Friday evening Manager Woods believes that he is offering one of the highest, cleanest entertainments ever given on the American stage.

AT THE TEMPLE.

A fun feast is the tempting repast being served at the Temple this week in Henry P. Dixon's Revue of 1915. Garnished with a plethora of pretty girls and plentifully spiced with rich humor, fresh bright and snappy gags and some regular music the Revue this season justly earns the royal reception being accorded it by Fort Wayne's critical burlesque fans. Harry LeVan, the diminutive comedian with the expressive mobile features is the prime occasion for most of the big laughs of the show, but Sam Drane is given some excellent comedy lines. The feminine roles are in exceptional clever hands, with Claire Devine, the lovely prima donna, Helen (Patsy) Delaney, the dandy dancer, Florence Brooks and a host of other equally clever young woman handling the principal burdens. The chorus is exceptionally snappy.

AT THE EMPRESS.

The bill that is now on view at the Empress is one of those shows that contain more than the customary percentage of laughter and entertainment. The bill opens with the appearance of Charles and Anna Glocker, the exceptional jugglers who perform some unusual stunts with pails and boilers of water. Wallace Galvin comes next with a magical act which provokes merriment and is very entertaining. He is the man who made the egg trick famous and this egg trick of his is sure a laughable act. "When Caesar Sees Her" is a travesty that is a hummer. It is another big laugh act and it is followed by another big laugh maker in "Suffocated With Delightfulness" which is presented by Fiddler and Shelton, two colored comedians. The closing act is the unusual posing number presented by the Four Milos, the original radium platinum posers.

THE BEAUTIFUL "DRAW STEP" IN THE NEW "FOX TROT."

BL J. HERVEY HUME.

The fox trot is now generally conceded to be the most popular of the new ball-room dances. It may be described as a combination of the old "negro shuffle" and the more modern ragstep. Its variations are too numerous to mention. In fact, it may be said of the fox trot that any step which is done in unison with the fox-trot music may be called fox trotting.

AT THE COLONIAL

"THE SQUARE TRIANGLE."

Drama Featuring Little Jackie Saunders in Leading Role at Colonial Today.

For those who demand a better sort of photoplay, there will be presented at the Colonial theater today an excellent three part drama, "The Square Triangle."

It tells the story of how three men form a sort of club called the "Square Triangle" to care for the daughter of a dying comrade. The part of the daughter is portrayed in a charming manner by Miss Jackie Saunders.

The co-attraction on today's program is a three reel thriller "The End of the Bridge," a drama which depicts the stirring scenes in which a clever young detective saves his sweetheart's brother and ends the activities of a band of crooks.

"Runaway June" Tomorrow.

Tomorrow there comes to the Colonial the wonderful "Runaway June" serial. This play will be greeted with much interest on the part of theater-goers of Fort Wayne, because of its delightful comedy, its thrilling dramatic scenes and its heart interest.

George Randolph Chester and Lillian Chester, his wife, wrote this story especially for the pictures, which will appear at the Colonial every Wednesday for 15 weeks. There will also be shown a three-reel drama featuring Jackie Saunders.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

"A FOOL THERE WAS."

Photoplayed Versian of Famous Drama at Jefferson for Single Engagement.

"A fool there was and he made his prayer,
(Even as you or I)
To a rag and a bone and a hank of hair."

—Kipling.

The tremendous power of these famous lines have stirred people as no other poem has done, and the impressive significance of the appeal finding a responsive note in the hearts of all of all those who understand life and its vicissitudes. This poem proved the inspiration that spurred Porter Emerson Browne to write his wonderful dramatic success, "A Fool There Was," a play that scored a phenomenal triumph when it was presented by Robert Hilliard some years ago.

In the photoplayed version of this drama, which appears at the Jefferson theater today, the producers have given this play a picturized presentation that will prove more of a revelation to theater-goers than the legitimate adaptation did. Richard Jose, one of the most finished actors of the regular stage, has the trying role of "the Fool," a role acted by this artist with magnificent power. Theda Bara, another notable recruit from the footlights, enacts the repulsive figure of "the Vampire" with a fidelity that is at all times worthy of the prototype. Miss Bara is a woman of striking beauty.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy" Scores Wonderful Hit.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's appealing story of childhood done in photoplay form, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" opened a two days stay at the Lyric theatre yesterday. Master Gerald Royston a juvenal actor of much experience is in the title role. A strong cast supports him, the production is wonderfully staged and beautifully costumed and is one of the best productions brought to this city in some time.

A production extraordinary, "Samson" by Henri Bernstein and produced by Edgar Lewis is a play of tremendous force and sustaind dramatic action, with climax following climax in startling succession. William Farnum plays the principal part and he is said to be seen at his best in this wonderful production which will be shown at the Lyric theatre one day only Wednesday.

Checker's Fashion's Favorite Game Now

One of the freakish fashions that comes in with the new year is the checkerboard collar and the checkerboard cuffs. But every fashionable woman devoted to the juvenile game of checkers will not adopt the new fad, for the "checkers" are made of seal and ermine, and only royal ladies and a few "American queens" wear ermine or seal either.

Prefers Tennis to Court Functions.

Princess Hilda of Luxemburg.

Although she has just celebrated her eighteenth birthday anniversary, Princess Hilda, one of the six young princesses of Luxemburg, declines to grow up and assume the airs and dignity of a royal young lady.

The princess is devoted to out-door sports and, according to court gossip, she'd rather ride in a hurdle race or play tennis than attend court functions.

ENEMY SWALLOWED BY JEALOUS TROUT

Romance in Connecticut Where Even the Fishes Fall in Love.

Winsted, Conn., Jan. 12.—Ever hear of a trout being in love, turning cannibal and committing murder?

Last autumn two trout, each measuring ten inches, were taken from a small spring at Wintergreen estate, Highland lake, and placed in a deep spring, ten feet, between walls, where Pete, a tame trout, fifteen inches long, had made his home for seven years without a companion.

Pete at once took a liking to one of the trout, but whenever the lid of the spring was raised he would glide through the water after the other one, and whenever close enough tried to bite the fleeing fish. It also was noticed at feeding time, when bits of meat were dropped into the water, that Pete did not object when his friends rose from the sandy bottom to get a bite, but kept his eyes on the other fellow and immediately gave chase if he tried to get any food. Jealous Pete more than once filled his mouth so full of liver that he could not close it.

The protracted drought caused the water level to drop from eight feet to two and the trout whose life Pete had sought for three months fell a victim to the big trout's prowess, the shallow water not giving him the room he had been accustomed to when fleeing from Pete's assaults. When the lid of the spring was raised yesterday only two trout were to be seen. Pete and his friend. From Pete's mouth protruded the tail of the missing fish.

Pete was easily captured and the dead trout extracted with difficulty. Today Pete appeared none the worse for his experience and contented with his one companion.

BOY GIVES CUTICLE TO SAVE HIS SISTER

Pittsburg Lad Parts With Twenty Inches of Skin for Fire Victim.

Pittsburg, Jan. 12.—If Katherine Pearson, aged 15, daughter of Mrs. Letitia Martin, a negress of McCague place, Swissvale, recovers from the burns that she suffered at her home, about a month ago, it will be due to her seven-year-old brother, David, who submitted to an operation by which 20 square inches of skin were transferred from his legs to the limbs of his sister. The operation took place at the Allegheny General hospital and both brother and sister are said to be recovering. John Pearson, aged 5, another son of Mrs. Martin, is also in the hospital, having been burned by the explosion of gas which burned his sister.

Katherine and John were in bed when the explosion occurred, leaking gas presumably having ignited from a stove. The shock blew out windows and doors and ignited the clothing of both children. Katherine extinguished the blaze in her brother's clothing and in so doing was badly burned herself. The skin-grafting was the only chance for the girl's recovery and the little brother volunteered. He walked to the hospital and to the operating table.

Mrs. C. H. Davies, 1036 Columbia avenue, was taken suddenly ill Monday with an acute attack of appendicitis. She was immediately removed to the St. Joseph hospital and was operated on at 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon. She is improving nicely.

DAMAGE SUITS ARE SENT FROM COUNTY

Rehm Cases for $30,000 Against Interurban Go to Lagrange.

On affidavit of the defendant that that there is a prejudice against it in Allen county that prevents a fair and impartial trial the suit of Daniel Rehm and his wife, Orpha Rehm, against the Fort Wayne & Northwestern Interurban company for damages has been sent by Judge Yaple, of the Allen superior court, where the suits were filed, to the Lagrange circuit court for trial. Mrs. Rehm sued for $20,000 damages and Mr. Rehm for $10,000 damages, alleging that the defendant was responsible for injuries they received last summer when the Rehm automobile was struck at a crossing north of Avilla by a Fort Wayne & Northwestern interurban car. Mr. and Mrs. Rehm were both badly injured and their 17-year-old daughter, Amber, and Mrs. Andrew Blume, of St. Joe township, were killed.

Sues Absconding Husband.

Florence Houck has brought suit in the superior court against Alonzo D. Houck for divorce. She says they were married April 3, 1911, and separated August 16, 1914, when the defendant deserted her. She charges inadequate support and cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff asks the custody of a child thre years old an an allowance for its support.

Notes of the Courts.

In the circuit court Susannah and Jonathan Shull have filed a complaint asking that Allen G. Dunten be enjoined from disposing of two notes for $50 and $100 given in part payment for a moving picture show in the town of Waterloo, purchased last summer by the plaintiffs. It is set out that after having purchased the place supposing all its belongings were free from encumbrance William D. Swank took possession of a piano against which he had claims. The complaint says that Dunten will sell the notes and so defraud them if not restrained.

Judge Yaple in the superior court has appointed Hon. Guy Colerick special judge to try the case of H. G. Raymond vs. the Home Supply company.

An amended complaint has been filed in the circuit court in the suit of Louis F. Ormiston vs. Joseph F. Zurbaugh for damages.

The Grabill State bank has filed suit in the superior court against W. H. Langham and John Langham on note for $410 and another against John Langham and W. H. Langham on note for $420.

In the circuit court Judge Eggeman approved the finding of a lunacy commission that declared Carl Schindler of unsound mind and will appoint a guardian for Schindler, who had given for almost nothing a deed for property worth $1,500. A suit to set aside the conveyance will probably be instituted.

George D. Mills has petitioned the superior court to modify an order requiring him to pay $10 a month to his wife. He says he can get little work and the payments are a burden. He wants the allowance cut to $5 monthly.

In the circuit court Louis Roy has brought suit against Charles Bacon to collect $90 on account.

The Tri-State Loan and Trust company, as administrator of the estate of the late John Valparo, has petitioned the circuit court to find that the estate is not subject to the inheritance tax law. The estate is valued at $2,161.37 and all the heirs of the deceased reside in Italy.

CONSTANTINOPLE ON VERGE OF STARVATION

New York, Jan. 12.—The closing of the Dardanelles and the shutting off of Turkey from outside commerce has resulted in the people of Constantinople being reduced almost to the verge of starvation, according to George Tomayan of Chicago, for the past eighteen months in charge of an American orphan asylum at Constantinople who arrived here today on the Greek steamship Athinai from Piraeus.

"When I left Constantinople less than a month ago," he said, "that city was reduced to sore straits for food, all available supplies having been confiscated by military authorities. Suffering among the people was intense and the struggle for food by the poor is pitiful in the extreme."

Manager of Waldorf-Astoria Hires Two Young Women as Cashiers.

New York, Jan. 11.—One absent minded individual who finds solace in a lonely drink at the Waldorf-Astoria bar has been known to be so forgetful that he has gulped down the water chaser and left the whisky stand on the bar. This was the type of man who in a thoughtful mood walked in from the oak room of the Waldorf-Astoria reading a legal document, quickly finished a glass of sherry and then went to the cashier's desk to liquidate his indebtedness. He chanced to look up, and to his amazement he saw a young woman presiding over the desk, and a second glance told him that another young woman was in charge of the cigar counter.

The news that women were in the Waldorf-Astoria bar soon spread to old customers, who although they were not—so they said—in the habit of drinking anything before 6 o'clock decided that to really see that there were women cashiers in the bar they must take a drink and then buy a cigar.

"What little queens" said one man as he meandered out into the lobby. "Best idea I ever heard of. Kind of English, you know. Soon Mr. Boldt will be having barmaids, same as they do over in the old country."

"This makes a highball all the more interesting," quoth another man. "And it has the advantage of keeping men within bounds when they are liable to use expletives."

SALARY LIST FOR LIGHT DEPARTMENT

That the city council may know and approve the salaries that rule for the various officials and employes in the city light and power works department, the board of works will present at Tuesday night's meeting an ordinance establishing a salary list. This list was prepared and approved at a meeting of the board with Mayor Hosey and Secretary-Superintendent John Wessel, of the department. The monthly salaries the council will be asked to establish are as follows:

Secretary and superintendent, $125; superintendent and chief electrician, $150; chief engineer at power house, $150; auditor, $100; foreman of meter department, $90; ledger clerk, $70; assistant clerks, $60; stenographer, $40; solicitors, $75; draughtsman and clerk, $75; general foreman of line construction, $90; firemen, $65; service men, $75; municipal lighting contract service men, $70; meter inspectors and testers, $70; meter readers, $60.

These are of course maximum salaries and are not in all cases the salaries that are being paid. In some cases the pay at present is less. The council has never established a salary list for the lighting department and the board wants that body to know what salaries are the rule.

WANT FOSTER RETAINED.

Federation of Labor Asks His Reappointment to Park Board.

The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, at its regular meeting, Monday evening, adopted resolutions expressing the appreciation of that body of the gift of Foster park to the city by Col. D. N. Foster, president of the park board, and his brother, Hon. S. M. Foster, and petitioning Mayor Hosey to re-appoint Colonel Foster to the park board. The resolutions, which were introduced by the delegates whose names are signed to them, are as follows:

Whereas, The term of Col. David N. Foster as park commissioner expires on February 1st, 1915; and

Whereas, Col. Foster has done so much toward the establishment of a park system and centers of recreation; and

Whereas, He and his brother, the Hon. S. M. Foster, have just recently made a gift to the city in donating Foster park, the largest in the city; and

Whereas, We believe that other wealthy men will make similar or other benefactions to our city if accorded the proper treatment. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor, most respectfully petition Hon. Wm. J. Hosey, mayor, to reappoint Col. D. N. Foster to succeed himself at the expiration of his term.

The resolution bears the signatures of Joseph D. Shaw, Wm. A. Jackson, A. C. Berger, secretary, Clayton H. Johnson, Thos. Cross, P. R. Bell, W. H. Stevens, J. C. Miller, Louis Kammer, Joe Siemon, J. C. Werkman and Frank J. McCarthy.

AGAINST PARK ASSESSMENT.

Hanna School Meeting Strong In Opposition to Weisser Enlargement.

At a well attended meeting held Monday night in the Hanna public school building citizens of the Seventh and Tenth wards went strongly on record against the park board's proposals for the enlargement and improvement of Weisser park. As against the proposition ninety-five votes were recorded, whereas but seven were counted in favor of it. At the same time resolutions in condemnation of the present park board law and praying the legislature to change it were passed by a vote that was unanimous. Col. D. N. Foster, president, and Charles J. Steiss, secretary of the park board, were present by invitation, this being the first time that advocates of the plan had been present at opposition meetings. Colonel Foster, explaining that the assessments were low and that none would subsequently be made for Weisser park, pledged that he would "leave town if you are assessed more than once for Weisser park." President Foster spoke of the improvements that already had been made in Weisser park from the general park funds, and said that if the assessments proposed and the sale of property to be acquired in the plans for enlargement did not produce enough money to carry out the enlargement and improvements the balance would be made up from the general work fund. Mayor Hosey spoke to the meeting and said his interest in the proposal began and ended in a purpose to see that the property owners got a square deal, and that if a majority of them were in favor of the plans he had no protest to make. He had been elected on a platform that pledged him to have the objectionable features of the park law removed, he said, and would do all he could to redeem that promise. Anselm Fuelber, who has been actively leading the fight against the Weisser park enaregement, spoke strongly in opposition to the Weisser park plans, and denounced the park board law as unfair and oppressive. Otto Fuelber and Emmett Martin also spoke against the Weisser park plans. Dr. J. B. McElroy made a strong defense of Colonel Foster, declaring that opposition to the Weisser park plans had developed into a personal fight on the park board president.

ORDER PLANS FOR SEWERS.

The board of works at Monday afternoon's meeting ordered plans for two new sewer systems that are sorely needed, as was detailed in this department several days ago. One is to drain the territory east of Wabash avenue, south of Maumee avenue, west of Roy street and north of the Pennsylvania tracks. roFa long time the residents of that vicinity have been clamoring for this drinage system and Councilman A. H. Keller, of the Eighth ward, has labored with unceasing zeal to promote action. The other system will drain the Spy Run region. The board also ordered plans for a local sewer in the alley between Hoagland avenue and Webster streets, from Rudisill boulevard to Lexington avenue.

WILL NOT ASK A CHANGE.

The city council will not be asked at Tuesday night's meeting to consider an amendment of the ordinance that provides for the weight of loaves of bread to be either one pound or two pounds. At a meeting of master bakers held in the Commercial club Monday afternoon, six of the leading bread manufacturers decided by unanimous vote to make no effort to have the ordinance changed to permit reduction in weight of loaves. There has not been any prospect that such a proposal would meet with success in the council.

BIG MONTH FOR LIGHTING.

Secretary John Wessel, of the city lighting department, has submitted to the board of works figures showing that the month of December was a record breaker in the matter of new contracts. There was a net gain of 402 contracts during that month and all of these were hooked up to city lines without the setting of a new pole, all of them being secured on lines already established. This has been a great gain for the department and the more so because it was made at the minimum of expense.

NEW STREET LIGHTS.

The board of works has authorized the city lighting department to install new street lights at Broadway and McKinnie avenue, at the south end of Greenwood avenue and a lamp in the alley between Fairfield avenue and Fulton street at a point between Brackenridge street and Jefferson street.

CRUEL WOMAN SENT TO HIGHER COURT

Ethel Green Admits Beating of Blind Little Clark Child.

After a hearing in the city court, during which she had admitted that she had beaten 4-year-old blind Martha Clark, of 2815 Hoagland avenue, Judge Kerr bound Ethel Green over to the circuit court, remarking as he did so that his court did not have jurisdiction to inflict an adequate penalty. She was charged with assault and battery.

The Green woman, who is 18 years old, has been employed for five months at the home of Joseph E. Clark, the blind piano tuner whose wife deserted him nearly a year ago, to keep house for him and take care of his two little girls aged 2 and 4 years. She was arrested Monday afternoon after an investigation by Police Lieutenant Harry Grimme, Deputy Prosecutor Stephen A. Callahan and Police Matron Winch had established that Martha Clark had been for a long time subjected to a course of almost inhuman treatment by the housekeeper.

At the city court hearing Lieuteant Grimme, Patrolman Hartzell and Matron Winch testified to the shocking condition of the little blind girl's body. Miss Green admitted that she had whipped the child with a heavy strap about noon Monday after having removed the little one's clothing to put her to bed. The baby's screams aroused the neighborhood and the police were called. Miss Green said she had punished the child on previous occasions.

Judge Kerr gave the heartless young domestic a terrible grilling and said he could not conceive of a woman's nature so cruel as to inflict needless pain on a little child so unfortunate. He fixed Miss Green's bond at $1,000. She may be tried in the circuit court Wednesday.

The clark children are at the Relief Union home on Hanna street until a proper housekeeper can be found for Clark.

EVERS TELLS JUST HOW IT HAPPENED

Great Second Baseman Says It Was His First "Bone" Play in Game.

John Evers tells in the Baseball Magazine just how he made that bone in the world series:

"I was approached by newspaper men the same evening," says Evers, "and asked about the play and how I happened to make it. I admitted freely and frankly that it was a bone and let it go at that. I haven't said anything about it since. It was a bonehead play. There is no doubt about that. But I don't think that it was as much of a bonehead play as it seemed though I may be prejudiced.

"When that ball was hit to me I was anxious to get it. I had my mind on getting it just as soon as possible, for with three men on and the game in extra innings any slip may mean a score. No doubt I was too anxious and it is no excuse if I was. At any rate the ball made a rather awkward bound before it reached me and hit me in the chest. It hurt some and disconcerted me to that extent, though I am not saying that was an excuse for my playing it as I did. When it struck me in the chest it bounded away several feet and I made after it mechanically. But as I chased it the thought was in my mind that the game was lost. I was sore to think I had let the ball get away from me like that, on what looked like a simple stop. I was sore to think that through a lack of good fielding on my part the game was lost, we had fought so hard to win. That was all. I didn't think of the men on the bases. I didn't think of the crowd or the other players on the team. It didn't even occur to me that it made any difference whether the Athletics scored one run or two runs so long as they scored. For I felt that the game was lost, and that it was my failure to field my position as I would have liked to field it, that had lost it. While I was recovering the ball Schang was scoring and Murphy going to third. But seeing that I was in a trance Murphy kept on to the plate. Now I became faintly aware that the other players were yelling at me to throw the ball. But I didn't see Murphy before he reached the plate. I don't know how I would have fared if I had seen him for Murphy is one of the fastest men in the game. Probably I could have caught him all right. I don't know. But I didn't see him until after he had crossed the plate and was walking to the bench. All this time I had been standing there with my head down kicking myself to think that we had lost the game. I had no other thought. And it is a remarkable thing, for in all my playing I never remember before to have stood that way with my head down. When I was on the Cubs I used always to be calling out 'Heads up' to the other players. It was a favorite phrase of mine, and I acted on it myself. My attitude always was to keep my head up and fighting till it was all over. And I am sore to think I should pick out such an occasion as this to act contrary to my lifetime custom and hang my head while an extra runner was scoring. It isn't very pleasant for me to think of, though I was fortunate in that my misplay didn't cost the game, for we won out in the end. It was the oddest play I ever made and the hardest to explain now though it seemed perfectly simple to me at the time."

"It was a bone play, I won't deny that," said Stallings, "but we all make them. If no one ever made more than Evers baseball would be a different game. But even he had his share at it that time. The spirit of the players, however, I want to say, was the finest thing I have ever seen on a ball ground. Naturally Evers was completely knocked out when the realization of what he had done came over him. He sat on the bench like a man stunned or stricken with paralysis. I tried to get him out of it by telling him, 'brace up so the young players won't see you in the dumps,' but he didn't. And then every man on the team came over and tried to cheer him up. 'Never mind, John,' they said, 'the game isn't over yet. We'll win yet and show them. Even if the game is lost, what of it? There's three more to play and we'll win the rag sure. It wasn't your fault, everybody slips up once in a while.' And they fairly pulled him out of his pessimism by main strength. It was a grand exhibition of team cooperation, and I was glad to see that later in the game Evers was able to help most effectually in the scoring and took a main part in pulling the game out of the fire after it had been lost apparently beyond hope."

HUNTINGTON HOPES FOR FUTURE GAMES

Therefore It Will Do Its Best in Contest With St. Paul.

If Huntington can show the speed at basketball that advance notices say it possesses it can find plenty of games here during the season as all of the local clubs are looking for good bookings.

Under these conditions it is to be expected that in the game against the St. Pauls at St. Paul's auditorium the visitors will give the public all they have in the way of speed and basket shooting. Then there is another thing.

Fort Wayne folks have been prone to regard anything that comes out of Huntington as small town stuff and this is galling so the basketball contingent will come all geared up to show that there is just as good athletic material over there as Fort Wayne possesses. This is the sort of feeling that makes basketball worth while and the spectators are pretty sure to get a run for their money.

Huntington has played Zanesville some pretty close games and is firmly convinced that it is in the same class as the Weaver five. This can be judged after the encounter with St. Paul.

Considerable interest centers around the first game when the St. Paul Nationals meet the Olympics in a junior city league contest. Both teams have perfect records so far and each will go into this game determined to stay in the 1.000 per cent. class. The teams will line up same as they did in last week's games and a great battle is expected. The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock so as to be over in plenty of time for the St. Paul-Huntington game.

Basketball Notes.

Manager Parrot, of the Wayne club of Notre Dame university, has been compelled to cancel the game booked against the Lyceum Aeolians on Wednesday night because the faculty will not permit the students to make the trip. Spencerville has been booked to fill the date.

Tuesday night—Nationals vs. Olympics, at St. Paul's auditorium. Tuesday night—Rexalls vs. T. O. P.'s at Jefferson school. Thursday night—Wayne Knits vs. Precious Blood Maroons, at Minor school gym. Saturday night—Aeolians vs. Bachelors, at Lyceum auditorium.

COLLEGE PITCHER FOR CUBS.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Paul Des Jardien, star center of the University of Chicago football team, regarded as one of the best baseball pitchers in the "Big nine," will join the Chicago club of the National league in June, according to a story published here today. Des Jardien declined at this time, it was said, to sign a contract as he did not want to endanger his amateur standing by signing to play professional baseball. He agreed, however, to sign as soon as he received his diploma in June.

O'DAY IS IMPROVING.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Henry O'Day, former manager of the Chicago Nationals, and veteran umpire, who underwent an operation for stomach trouble yesterday, was said today to be improving. He will be obliged to remain in the hospital for two weeks, it was said.

OLD RIVALS START THE 1915 CONTEST

St. Mary's and Concordia College Will Play First Game in City Series.

Old rivals will meet on the basketball floor when St. Mary's Athletics and the Concordia college five start the city series at St. Paul's auditorium on Friday night of this week and the question of which is the best of the first string clubs of Fort Wayne will be decided before the bell taps for the close.

Clubs representing the college and the athletic club have met several times and as each has a big following the crowds in attendance have aroused a rivalry that still exists and that will hold throughout the present season.

This feeling will spur both clubs to action and each of them will enter the series in the best condition as a victory at the start will give the winner an edge and that is a good thing to carry into the next meeting.

In the preliminary the Concordia seconds will play the Precious Blood Maroons and this curtain raiser promises to be a scrappy sort of an affair as Concordia has been romping away with victories in the games against the second string clubs of Fort Wayne.

RACING QUEEN CHALLENGES HER SEX FOR WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP.

MISS MYRTLE STEADMAN.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12.—The challenge of Miss Myrtle Steadman against all other drivers of her sex to contest for a woman's championship auto race has roused response all over the country, and the outcome may soon be one of the most sensational sporting events ever staged in the west.

Miss Steadman, a Los Angeles girl, recognized as a daring speed-burner, wants to show the world that women have the nerve and ability to drive racing autos as fast or even a little faster than the famed male maholts.

Miss Lillian Hayward, another California girl, has already accepted Miss Steadman's defi.

The winner of the first battle of racing women will rightly deserve the title, "Queen of the racing world," said Miss Steadman, "and maybe a little later we'll challenge some of the kings."

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 12.—"Matty" McGraw, the Adonis of the Central league catching ranks two years ago, will appear in a Grand Rapids uniform again next season. President Essick, of the local baseball team, announced yesterday that he had purchased the release of the tall receiver from Milwaukee. Knowing the style of a performer McGraw is, there is no room for doubt but what the local club will be amply protected in the catching department, in which they were very weak all last season.

Essick also announced yesterday that he has deals under way which will bring from one to three class AA infielders here this spring and three more outfielders here to Grand Rapids people will be purchased. Grimes will be the only one of last season's garden trio to return. Marshall has been traded to Fort Wayne and O'Day will undoubtedly go with the Springfield franchise, as will Reilly and Umlauff. McKillen, secured from the Cleveland Americans, will be one of the newcomers, but the others have not been named. He will also get three more experienced pitchers.

BABE FALLS FAR; LITTLE HURT.

Tot at Huntington Drops From Second Story to Cement Walk.

Huntington, Ind., Jan. 12.—A fall from a two-story window to a cement walk, and only one little scar to show for it. That is what a physician says of one of the narrowest escapes a boy ever had in Huntington.

Robret Meyers, age two, a little chap with lots of nerve in his little body, tumbled from the second story of the Spencer house Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

He fell on his face on the hard cement sidewalk on State street with such force that it was feared his neck was broken and his body would be a mass of bruises.

Not a bone was broken. There were several large gashes in his lip and some of his teeth were broken off or knocked out, but up to this time the physician has found no symptoms of serious injuries.

FOUND DEAD IN CHAIR.

Bluffton, Ind., Jan. 12.—Ira Taylor, a brother of Zeke Taylor, of this city, was found dead in his chair at his home one-half mile east of Liberty Center, early in the morning, by his wife. He had been a sufferer from organic heart trouble, complicated by goitre for the past six months, and his death is ascribed to heart trouble. He was obliged to take his rest in a large Morris chair being unable to lie down in bed because of the heart trouble. Mr. Taylor had been a resident of Wells county almost all his life and was 64 years old. He followed farming and blacksmithing for some time in the vicinity of Bly, coming six or seven years ago to make his home one-half mile east of Liberty Center.

MARRIED FIFTY-SIX YEARS.

Huntington, Ind., Jan. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. George V. Griffith, of this city, have just celebrated the fifty-sixth anniversary of their marriage, an event made memorable by the reception of two hundred friends of the aged couple at their North Jefferson street home, which was gay and fragrant with flowers. Mr. Griffith and Evaline Woolsey were united in marriage in Jordan, N. Y., and moved to Norfolk, Ohio, in 1854 and six years later went to Fort Wayne, where they resided until 1869, when they came to Huntington. Mr. Griffith established here the G. Griffith & Sons sawmills, which a few years ago were moved to Albany, Ind., because the timber hereabouts was exhausted.

BANK INCREASES CAPITAL.

Churubusco, Ind., Jan. 12.—The Exchange bank, of Churubusco, owned by Oscar Gandy & company has increased its capitalization from $25,000 to $50,000, making it one of the strongest institutions of its character in the county. Under careful and conservative methods, the bank has enjoyed a substantial growth and Mr. Gandy and his sons have convinced the public that they are thoroughly competent and successful business men. Their investments are large and they carry on extensive business operations over the northern part of the state.

GETTING READ FOR BOB JONES.

Hartford City, Ind., Jan. 12.—Work has begun here on the big tabernacle that is to be used in the Bob Jones revival meetings that will be inaugurated early next month. Ministers of the Protestant churches announced from their pulpits Sunday that volunteers would be needed Monday to erect the building. Yesterday carpenters under the direction of John Messner and Ed Clark started to erect the frame work. The tabernacle will be 120 by 130 feet in dimensions and will have a seating capacity of 3,000. John M. Bonham has been chosen general secretary of the meeting.

AGED WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Kendallville, Ind., Jan. 12.—Mrs. C. A. Brothwell, aged 80 years, was found dead in bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Steven Rinehart, on Mott street, after 6 o'clock, following a day's illness. For the last three years she had made her home with her daughter here. Her husband preceded her in death about five years. Surviving besides Mrs. Rinehart are three daughters.

GIVES WIFE A DIVORCE.

Decatur, Ind., Jan. 12.—In the circuit court, Judge Smith has announced his findings and rendered judgment in the divorce case of Della A. Andrews against Robert Andrews. The court found for the plaintiff on her complaint and against the defendant on his cross complaint and granted her alimony in the sum of $500. The custody of an only son was given the defendant. The evidence in the case was placed early in the term, since which time the court had the matter under advisement.

Bluffton, Ind., Jan. 12.— James Huss, aged 15, has been brought home from Pennville hospital, where he underwent an operation following an accident three weeks ago. While hunting with his brother the latter accidentally shot James in the abdomen, and the 22-caliber bullet penetrated the intestines. He is now able to walk about his home. He is a son of James Huss, a local teamster.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who clung to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Fort Wayne given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys, can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:

Mrs. Josephine Yehl, 1635 Force St., Fort Wayne, says: "One of my family took Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to be just what was needed. He suffered from severe pains across his back, together with weakness of the kidneys. He used one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and that was all that was needed to make a lasting cure. I advise anyone who has kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Yehl recommends. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Smooths Out the Wrinkles

Worry causes more wrinkles on young faces than is traced thereon by the fingers of Old Father Time. And all household duties are sources of worriment, either in the doing or in having them done.

The old rhyme "man works from sun to sun—woman's work is never done," always will be thus until women decide to banish worriment by taking advantage of the many truly labor saving and trouble abolishing household devices, which they can now obtain and use at trifling cost.

is one of these. It does a week's ironing at a cost of about fifteen cents for electricity. It smooths out all ironing day troubles, also, the crow's feet and wrinkles, which "worry" paints on faces young and fair.

Come in and try one. We handle all the latest types and sizes of G-E Irons.

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right."—Adv.

DRIVER AND HORSE INSTANTLY KILLED

Farmer Frank Selmon Goes to Sleep in Buggy and is Struck by Train.

Frank Selmon, a farmer residing in Porter county, and his horse were instantly killed on the Montdale crossing of the Pennsylvania road four miles east of Valparaiso some time last night. The railway officials at the hour this is written had not found out what train struck the rig. The dead man and his horse were discovered at the south side of the tracks by Conductor Peterson and their position indicated that they had been struck by an eastbound train. Selmon, the railway men say, was in the habit of going to Valparaiso and filling up on booze, and it is said that he was in that condition when friends put him in his buggy and started him homeward last night. His watch stopped at 1:23 o'clock this morning and it is presumed that the accident happened at that time. The faithful old horse, it is said, had taken him home safely when he was asleep in the buggy several times, but it failed to do it last night.

TO BOOM CO-OPERATIVE STORES.

Federation of Labor Calls a Mass Meeting for Next Monday.

An important part of the proceedings of the meeting of the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor last night was the preliminary arrangements for a mass meeting to be held next Monday night for the purpose of boosting the proposition to establish co-operative stores in Fort Wayne. Manager Phillips, of the Indianapolis store, will be invited to attend the meeting and he will probably be here. The movement is to be given all possible support by the local federation and with that end in view President J. D. Shaw last night appointed P. R. Bell, Clayton H. Johnson, J. E. Wolf, Harry Roesner and W. J. McCarthy a committee to act with the committees selected by the various unions on the co-operative plan.

Another matter which attracted considerable interest was a resolution bearing the signatures of J. D. Shaw, William A. Jackson, A. C. Berger, Clayton H. Johnson, Thomas Cross, P. R. Bell, J. C. Werkman, F. J. McCarthy, W. B. Stevens, J. C. Miller, Louis Kammer and Joseph Simon asking that Col. D. N. Foster be reappointed on the park board. It was passed without much opposition.

President Shaw named the Labor day committee as follows: Joseph D. Shaw, William A. Jackson, J. C. Werkman, J. J. Perrey, A. C. Berger, Clayton H. Johnson, F. J. McCarthy, Joseph Deahl, F. J. Schwanz, J. E. Wolf and Oscar Huber.

John J. Daley, who had been attending a meeting of the executive board of the Indiana State Federation of Labor, reported that the committee had a compensation law ready to be introduced in the state legislature, and also that Clayton H. Johnson had been named on the prison labor committee of the state labor body.

BRUCE SENDS CONGRATULATIONS.

Public Service Commissioner is Proud of Pennsylvania Railroad.

Upon receipt of news to the effect that the Pennsylvania carried 189,167,326 passengers in 1914, without killing one of them, W. Cabell Bruce wrote to the management of the company as follows: "Your record in this respect is one, it seems to me, of which every American citizen should be proud. Personally I have long felt that there is nothing human that approaches so nearly the movements of the heavenly bodies in point of organization and system as the movement of passenger trains on those portions of the Pennsylvania lines with which I am familiar."

On the same subject the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph of January 9 said: "Passengers are in next to no danger when they travel on a railroad managed by men intelligently devoted to preventing accidents. When the interest in safety relaxes violent death begins to take toll again.

"Last year the Pennsylvania Railroad system carried 189,167,326 passengers without injury to one of them. This perfect score is the culmination of a swift and steady growth toward safety by the railroad in question. In four of the past seven years the Pennsylvania Lines East of Pittsburgh have equaled this record. Here is an accomplishment which all the railroads in the United States should be obliged to emulate. They can do it if they try hard enough."

MAY BUY MOVIES OUTFIT.

Electro-Technic Club Planning for Entertaining Members.

As an entertaining and educational feature, the Electro-Technic club will consider at the meting next Friday night a proposition to purchase a moving picture outfit and install it in the assembly room at the Fort Wayne Electric works. If the project meets with general approval at the meeting, the purchase will be made at once so as to get the greatest possible service out of it during the balance of the lecture season. The moving picture outfit will, of course, be able to handle comic and dramatic films, but the primary object is to use it in exhibiting pictures of an educational nature. At the meeting next Friday it is expected, also, to announce the date of the lecture to be given by Art Smith, the "bird boy," which must be soon, for Mr. Smith wants to go south to meet some engagements with winter resort people on the gulf coast. He has some new flying apparatus of a different pattern from any yet exhibited, which he will demonstrate on this trip.

Gather at Peru to Plan Work Methods for the Year 1915.

Fifty of the section foremen on the Peru division of the Wabash met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in that city Monday to talk over the matter of track upkeep and to devise a co-operative line of action for the spring work, soon to begin. Some of the maintenance of way officials, including E. C. Danes and Charles Palmer, were present and addressed the men. In summing up the conditions of the tracks on the several sections it developed that John Kindlesparker, of Rich Valley, and Aud Harper, of New Haven, had the best sections and they were made to arise in order that the others might take a look at the "champions," as E. C. Danes called them.

NO HARD TIMES THERE.

VanArnam Company's Books Well Filled With Orders.

In a business way the VanArnam company is in a class of its own this year, the president announcing recently that the company had more orders on its books for factory products than were on hand at this time a year ago. This means that the company will declare the usual dividend. Yesterday afternoon the stockholders held a meeting and re-elected the old board of directors and officers as follows: G. H. VanArnam, A. C. Becker, E. E. Parker, F. L. Smock, S. M. Foster, A. H. Perfect and F. L. Jones. The officers are: G. H. VanArnam, president and treasurer; A. C. Becker, vice president; E. E. MORE BOILER WORK.

This is the third contract Mr. Slater has made with one firm for tanks of this description, the total number being in the neighborhood of 125. The work on the tanks is all performed by boilermakers and makes busy times for that department of the shops.

PIANO GOES TO LAFAYETTE.

Fort Wayne came very near winning the $900 piano offered by the Liggett-Meyer Tobacco company in a contest for Indiana railroad men. There were two contestants in this city, Roy Kercheval, assistant ticket agent of the Lake Shore, and W. E. Ferguson, a conductor on the Pennsylvania road, and for six consecutive terms the president of Fort Wayne lodge, No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and each came very near the winning point. The contest resulted as follows: H. C. Steghorst, of Lafayette, first; Roy Kercheval, Fort Wayne, second; W. E. Ferguson, Fort Wayne, third, and Van Hays, Logansport, fourth.

NEW METHOD OF CARRYING MILK.

The people of Pittsburgh now receive nearly or quite all of their milk in the latest designs of refrigerator cars, and the Department of Agriculture has issued a circular telling how the agents of the department have been chiefly instrumental in bringing about this improvement; much of the milk having formerly been brought in ordinary baggage cars where its quality was much impaired by the heat. The inspectors of the government had found that some of the milk contained 22,800,000 microbes (or other animals) per cubic centimeter.

HARRY ERDLE HAS RETURNED.

Harry Erdle, assistant foreman at the Pennsylvania car machine shop, who so quietly slipped out and got married two weeks ago without the boys knowing it, just as quietly returned yesterday and resumed work. He took in several of the large eastern cities, including Washington, New York and Philadelphia, on his wedding trip.

EXPECTS TO GET CONTRACTS.

O. O. Tiewing, chief engineer and general manager of the Western Gas Construction company, said this morning that the company was endeavoring to negotiate some contracts which will put the works in good shape for several months if they are secured. He says the outlook for landing three of these contracts is good.

STOREKEEPERS HERE.

The Pennsylvania division storekeepers, with C. P. Cherry presiding, are holding a meeting in the committee room at the shops this week. There is one vacancy at the table. F. C. Grubb, division storekeeper at Toledo, is detained at home by the serious illness of his wife, who is in a hospital. She has been sick for some time and Mr. Grubb was called home at the last meeting before it was finished on that account.

GOING TO PERU HOSPITAL.

Richard Falconer, Wabash machinist, who is experiencing his first serious attack of illness, is not doing as well as expected and will go to the company's hospital at Peru this evening or tomorrow to undergo a course of treatment. Mr. Falconer has not been able to work for two weeks.

Feick, of DeKalb county, in a bill asks the state fishing and game license law be amended to exclude from its provisions the necessity of a license being obtained to fish. Representative Sam Benz, of English, offered a bill similar to that introduced in the senate yesterday providing for direct election of superintendent of schools. STOLE A RIG AND MOVED HIS FAMILY

John Johnson Confesses to Taking Horse and Buggy at Aurora, Ill.

After sticking close to the job for almost two weeks, Detective Sergeant William F. Pappert ran to ground John Johnson, who is wanted in Aurora, Ill., for stealing a horse and buggy in which he moved his family from that city, took them to Chicago, where for $50 he sold the stolen property and then with the money made another relay of his flight by coming to Fort Wayne. The theft was committed December 26 and two days later Johnson, with his wife, his five-months-old child and his mother-in-law, landed in Fort Wayne. Aurora authorities had somehow learned that Johnson was in Fort Wayne and the town was combed in search of him. A young man named Webb was suspected to be the horsethief and was held for a few days, but finally convinced the officers he was innocent and he was released. Detective Puppert was informed that the mother-in-law in the Johnson combination was a clairvoyant and spiritualistic medium and for more than a week he had been attending seances and looking up fortune tellers without result. Finally he learned that a woman had telephoned the city comptroller's office for the lowest quotations on a clairvoyant's license and had gone no further when she was informed that $1,000 was the Fort Wayne scale. This furnished a clue, and Detective Pappert located the woman in apartments on the third floor at 219 East Main street. Monday evening, and there he found Mrs. Johnson, the baby and mother-in-law. Johnson was out. Before 6 o'clock Tuesday morning Detective Pappert and Detective Sergeant Charles Spillner called at the rooms and arrested Johnson, taking him from his bed. He was held on a fugitive warrant by the city court. After making some denials he confessed and said he would return to Aurora without formalities. His wife had previously told the officers enough to completely identify Johnson as the horse thief. Johnson is a cook by occupation. He has spent all of his money and the family is entirely destitute and their distress is augmented by the expectation of addition to their number in a few months. Aurora officers are expected here to get Johnson.

GETS A LONG JAIL TERM.

Tobacco Thief Pleads Guilty and is Given $10 and Costs and 90 Days.

John Murphy, in the city court Tuesday morning, pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was fined $10 and costs and given ninety days in the county jail. This will hold him till the green comes back to the trees. Murphy stole some bundles of tobacco valued at $16 from the basement of the Pony Cigar factory, on Calhoun street, and was arrested while he was trying to sell it.

Bernard Laughlin, who tried to shuffle off by drinking an ounce of iodine in his cell at police headquarters, Monday night, after he had been arrested for drunkenness, was able to be in court and was given a chance to get work or leave town. He was arrested at the Columbia street mission. Dr. J. Frank Dimen, the police surgeon, pumped him out Monday night at headquarters after the police had discovered his essay to die.

Pat Green, whose face is becoming familiar in the city court, came to Fort Wayne Monday, got stewed and was found at the Nickel Plate depot by Officer Paul. He was charged with being intoxicated at a railroad depot and was fined $10 and costs, going to jail.

George Dougherty, Henry Kruse and Pat Toughey, drunks, were turned loose.

DISCARDS GUN AND ESCAPES.

Prowler on Street Flees When Trio of Cops Pursue.

People residing in the vicinity of Wayne and Harrison streets thought of a hostile invasion at 2:40 o'clock Tuesday morning when a succession of gunshot reports disturbed the quiet of the hour. Officers Hall and Godfrey saw a man on Harrison street, near Washington and approached him. The fellow wheeled and fled north to Wayne street, turning west on Wayne and continuing his flight. The officers pursued and fired their revolvers in the air to bring the fugitive to a halt. Officer Shaugnessy, over on Berry street, heard the shooting and cut down Webster street to Wayne and, sighting the fleeing man, unlimbered his artillery and began to shoot, but the fellow did not stop. At daylight Dr. W. E. Blackstone, who resides at Harrison and Wayne street, from his window saw three men of the hobo type in the street, and one of them picked a revolver from the pavement. Later Dr. Blackstone found five 32-caliber centerfire cartridges near where the weapon was picked up. The police are looking for the three hobos, suspecting one may be the man who fled.

SAW DANGLING SKELETON.

Friends of an occupant of the North American building, on Clinton street, played a practical joke, early Tuesday morning on the man who has lately been much interested in spiritualistic seances. They procured a skeleton, suspended it in front of a window in his room, roused him from his slumber, rattled the bones of the articulated human frame and started something that caused Night Patrolman Collins a lot of trouble. Shrieks for "Help!" and calls for "Police!" from the third story of the North American building brought the officer and a reporter to the scene to frustrate the murder. A sound of shattered glass and commingled noises was succeeded by the stillness of the tomb. An investigation uncovered the joke.

THIEF REMAINED TO DINE.

A thief broke into the Frank L. Borntrager grocery at Washington and Harmer streets, Monday night, stole two boxes of cigars, $1 in cash and then stayed long enough to regale himself on two pies and a can of condensed milk. Detective Sergeant Pappert, who investigated, could get no clue. Entrance was effected by breaking a lock.

GIRL RESTORES POCKETBOOK.

After being closely questioned by Detectives Pappert and Spillner Monday evening, Shirley Sipples, aged 12, confessed that she had stolen from a handbag in the Menter store, West Berry street, a small pocketbook containing $11.50. She produced the pocketbook from beneath a bathtub in a room at the Randall hotel, where her mother is employed. The girl and her mother made a purchase in the Menter store and were waited on by Mrs. Ella Hartzell, a saleslady, to whom the purse belonged. The child will not be prosecuted.
